990 Schedule F, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2	Grantees are required to submit audited statements as part of the due diligence conducted prior to the execution of a grant, and annually for every year thereafter, for the term of the grant period. All grant agreements specify that grantees are to keep separate records of all receipts and expenditures from CBPP funds.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule F, Part I Line 3	The program service "advancing transparency, accountability, and participation of government budgets" is performed by conducting comparative analyses of government budget institutions, processes and practices, building capacity of local civil society organizations, researching and documenting the impact of civil society budget work, promoting international standards for budget transparency, accountability and participation, and advising governments on mechanisms for expanding public participation in the budget process. In allocating the expenses incurred in furtherance of this program service, CBPP made certain operational assumptions including the following: (1) payments made to vendors via wire transfer or check were assigned to the region to which the payments were transmitted, and (2) all material payments made by credit card were allocated to the region where the program service was rendered, except that travel expenses were uniformly assigned to the destination region, not the traveler's point of origination.
