Schedule D, Part X, Line 2 - Schedule D, Part X, Line 1- FIN 48 footnote: NTI adopted the provisions of ASC Topic 740-10, Income Taxes, which addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under this guidance, NTI may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefits that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. The guidance on accounting for uncertainty in Income taxes also addresses de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties on Income taxes, and accounting in interim periods. Management evaluated NTI's tax positions and concluded that NTI had taken no uncertain tax positions nor are there any related penalties and interest that require adjustment to the accompanying financial statements to comply with the provisions of this guidance. Generally, the NTI is no longer subject to income tax examinations by the U.S. federal, state or local tax authorities for years before 2011.

Schedule F, Part I, Line 2 - Schedule F, Part I, Line 2- Grants are monitored through the following activities. 1. Pre-grant Inquiry: NTI program personnel confirm the suitability of the grantee by reviewing prior history and experience, considering references and complying with export control regulations. Results are documented in a decision memo which is presented to either the Board of Directors or the President for approval, depending on the size of the grant. 2. Written Grant Agreement: Once a grant proposal is approved, a grant agreement is drawn up between NTI and the grantee. This sets out the purpose of the grant, the budget and details the legal commitments, including compliance with US export control laws and regulations, and limitations on use of funds. All grant agreements are given a number for tracking purposes, and are signed by both parties. 3. Accounting for Grant Funds: The grant agreement specifies that grantees keep accurate and complete books and records of receipts and expenditures made in connection with the grant, maintaining such books and records in a manner that the receipts and expenditures of grant funds are shown separately. 4. Regular Reporting: The grant agreement requires that periodic, at least annual, narrative and financial reports are submitted to NTI detailing work accomplished and expenditure of grant funds against budget. Reports are reviewed by both NTI's program and financial personnel. 5. Project Oversight: NTI program personnel are in regular contact with grantee personnel and visit certain key projects to assess progress against grant goals. 6. Disbursement of Funds: NTI's grants are disbursed either up front, in tranches, or on an invoicing basis, dependent on the grant agreement. No funds are disbursed until a signed grant agreement has been received, export control checks have been reviewed and approved, and any other appropriate documentation received. For grants that are managed in tranches, or through invoicing, it is generally necessary that all reporting is up to date, and the appropriate stage of the grant project completed prior to subsequent funds being disbursed. All accounting records are maintained on accrual basis and in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. All unconditional grants are booked in full to the income statement at the point the grant agreement has been signed by both parties. In the year ended December 31, 2014, NTI did not make any conditional grants.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b - Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11 b - NTI's Form 990 is prepared by its Finance department. It is initially reviewed by the Treasurer/CFO and then an independent review is provided by Avalon Financial Advisors, LLC and its outside law firm, Davis, Pickren, Seydel and Sneed, LLP. Next, the CFO reviews the Form 990 with management- the Executive Vice President, and the President. NTI's Board of Directors has delegated its review of the Form 990 to the members of the Executive Committee. However, the final Form 990 is required to be sent to all members of the Board for informational purposes prior to being filed.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c - Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c - NTI's bylaws require that a copy of NTI's Conflict of Interest Policy, as adopted by the Board, be furnished to each Director, Officer and operational staff member serving at or associated with NTI. NTI's policy states that a conflict of interest exists: When an officer or member of the staff takes part in a decision in which it appears that she/he may be unable to remain impartial in choosing between the interests of the Nuclear Threat Initiative and his/her personal interests or the personal interest of his/her related parties or the interests of his/her reportable affiliates, or When an officer or member of the staff uses privileged information gained in the course of service at NTI for personal benefit or gain, or for the personal benefit of gain or his/her related parties or the interests of his/her reportable affiliates, or When an officer or member of the staff, by virtue of his/her relationship to NTI, receives a benefit that represents a transfer of NTI's financial resources that is not related to the accomplishment of NTI's tax-exempt purposes. Related parties are defined as spouses, parents, children, siblings, in-laws and any individuals who reside in an officer or member of the staff's household. Reportable affiliate means an institution, corporation or business organization for which an officer or member of the staff or a related party (who to the knowledge of the officer or staff member) serves as an officer, director, partner, employee, or agent; holds more than 1 % of the voting stock (If any); or has dealings from which he or she has materially benefitted (i.e. received more than $1,000 exclusive of dividends or interest). NTI prohibits officers or staff from participating or engaging in any activity for which a conflict of interest exists. Board members are recused from decisions of the Board in which a conflict of interest might arise. Board members, officers and staff member are required to disclose to NTI any related party and any reportable affiliate which is likely to apply or otherwise be considered by NTI for a grant award or financial transaction. The information provided is updated annually, or more frequently as appropriate.
