Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

Briefly describe the organization's mission

The purpose of the American Physiological Society is to promote the increase of physiological knowledge and its utilization. This is accomplished through the meetings and publications of the Society. The target audience for the services of the Society includes nearly 10,000 members as well as the large number of biomedical scientists interested in the physiological sciences who are not members of the Society.

Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ?

☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O

Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services?

☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a

(Code) (Expenses $ 14,800,487 including grants of $ 1,097,333) (Revenue $ 16,378,641)

The American Physiological Society (Society) usually conducts three scientific meetings per year, one meeting that is held each spring in conjunction with several other scientific societies and two smaller scientific conferences. The spring meeting attracts between 9,000 and 13,000 scientists, which represent the target audience. Of those attending the meeting, between 2,000 and 3,000 scientists directly benefit from the scientific offerngs of the Society. The two conferences attract approximately 500 scientists who represent the number of persons benefiting directly from the Society's symposia and workshops. The target audience for the conferences is between 15,000 and 25,000, representing members of the Society and the population of scientists interested in some aspect of the society's conferences. The Society publishes 14 scientific journals that serve as the vehicle for the dissemination of the investigator's research. The Society publishes more than 30,000 pages and receives over 6,300 manuscripts for publication. Each manuscript has an average of three authors, representing a population of 10,000 scientists who benefit from the society's publications. In addition, there are over 7,700 subscriptions to the 14 journals published by the Society. The majority of the subscribers are libranes providing a large target audience for the journals. Not only faculty, but also students and clinicians refer to the Society's journals providing for a potential target audience in excess of 100,000.

b A family member of a person described in (a) above?	11b
c A 35% controlled entity of a person described in (a) or (b) above? If "Yes" to a, b, or c, provide detail in Part VI.	11c

Part IV

Supporting Organizations (continued)

Section B. Type I Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year.
2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Were a majority of the organization's directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization's supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (1) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (2) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (3) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization(s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
3 By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.

Part IV

Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2, Part III, column (b), and any other additional information.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2	Award funding is usually not disbursed until after the condition of award has been met and verified by an APS staff person, either through physical presence at the event or through reviewing reports. Occasionally award funding may be advanced and carried on APS books as a receivable until such time as the condition of award has been completed and verified. Funding that is offered in support of an ongoing effort is tracked by an APS staff person by reports, newsletters, or other various means to track progress and ensure proper use of the funding.
