Fin 48	No provision has been made for income taxes since WACIF was formed as a tax-exempt organization and has been granted Section 501(c)(3) status by the Internal Revenue Service. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires WACIF to report information regarding its exposure to various tax positions taken by WACIF. WACIF has determined whether any tax positions have met the recognition threshold and has measured WACIFs exposure to those tax positions. Management believes that WACIF has adequately addressed all relevant tax positions and that there are no unrecorded tax liabilities. Federal and state tax authorities generally have the right to examine and audit the previous three years of tax returns filed. Any interest or penalties assessed to WACIF are recorded in expenses. No interest or penalties from federal or state tax authorities were recorded in the accompanying financial statements. The federal and state income tax returns of the Company since 2011 are subject to examination by the IRS and state taxing authorities, generally for three years after they were filed.
