990 Schedule F, Supplemental Information

990 Schedule F, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Schedule F, Supplemental Information	International Justice Mission exists to protect people from violent forces of injustice and to ensure that public justice systems effectively and sustainably protect the poor. In pursuit of this mission, IJM conducts casework on behalf of impoverished victims of violent abuse in Africa, Latin America, South Asia and Southeast Asia. This casework both ensures relief for individual victims of abuse and informs IJM's strategies for pursuing transformational change of public justice systems. Each IJM field office addresses specific forms of oppression that impact the poor in the geographic region. IJM's investigative and legal teams partner with local authorities to ensure perpetrators are arrested, charged and convicted for these violent acts, IJM social workers provide long-term support to victims of the crime. In Africa, IJM field offices defend vulnerable widows and orphans from property grabbing (Uganda), protect children from sexual violence (Kenya and Rwanda), defend innocent men and women victimized by police (Kenya), and rescue children from forced labor slavery (Ghana). In Latin America, IJM combats sexual violence against children (Bolivia and Guatemala) and rescues victims of commercial sexual exploitation (Dominican Republic). In South Asia, IJM combats two forms of modern-day slavery: sex trafficking and forced labor. In Southeast Asia, IJM's casework focus is sex trafficking and other forms of sexual violence (Cambodia and the Philippines). IJM teams bring rescue to victims of these crimes, partner with excellent aftercare providers to ensure survivors are supported as they heal, and have achieved significant success in securing convictions for perpetrators of these crimes. One field office in Southeast Asia (Chiang Mai, Thailand) conducts casework to ensure that members of hill tribe ethnic minority groups can access the citizenship and attendant benefits to which they are entitled. The goal of this citizenship casework is to decrease vulnerability to sex trafficking and other forms of violent oppression. IJM uses its unique knowledge of systemic gaps, weaknesses and deficiencies gained through individual casework to pursue justice system transformation that ensures the poor are effectively and sustainably served by the public justice systems upon which they must rely for protection. Expense allocation. When possible, IJM records expenses directly to the Field Offices to which they relate, for program expenses not directly allocated to a specific region, IJM allocates expenses based on the percentage of offices located in that region over the total number of offices. Additionally, IJM allocates bank fees and transfer fees as they relate to maintaining bank accounts for each office as well as transfer fees associated with the movement of funds to Field Offices. The allocation used for bank fees is also weighted based on the number of Field Offices in each region. Finally, IJM allocates fundraising expenses to each region based on the budget for that region as a percentage of the total IJM budget.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule F, Part IV, line 6	The organization has filed Form 5713 under separate cover to the IRS. The organization is not required to file Form 990-T. While the Organization does not conduct any of its programs within the boycotting countries that require the filing of Form 5713, some members of the Organization have flown airlines related to at least one of these countries to carry out their duties. Due to the broad nature of the instructions and definitions related to the Form, the Organization has determined that it is required to file the Form in order to report the procurement of airfare from companies located in these countries.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 1a	International Justice Mission provides companion travel for expatriates as part of the Organization's Staff Care plan. There are two specific instances where companion travel is allowed. These are annual required furlough travel and required attendance at an annual event held by the organization. All travel is subject to the procurement policy of the organization. All companion travel is treated as taxable income to the employee. The organization has a tax equalization program for its expatriate staff. This program equalizes the tax liability of the staff in order to simulate a tax liability equal to what they would pay if they were earning their income at our Head Quarters office in Washington, DC. Any taxes paid on behalf of an employee participating in the tax equalization program are treated as taxable income to that employee. IJM pays for the reasonable and necessary costs of home security services for expatriate employees in host cities where there are significant safety concerns, as deemed appropriate by a designated home security committee. These security services may include one or more security guards based at the employee's home. Employees on Part VII who received these services are: Kaighn Christy, Kathryn Wilkes, Shawn Kohl, Jesse Rudy. These amounts are treated as taxable income to the employee.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part I, Line 5 and Part V, Line 2a	As of 12/31/2014, IJM employed a total of 657 employees. Of these, 180 were employed at HQ in Washington, DC, 18 were U.S. Expatriates, 2 were Third Country Nationals, and 457 were Local National Staff in our Field Offices. Third Country Nationals are citizens of neither the U.S. nor the country in which they are working, and Local National staff members live in, work in and are citizens of the country in which our office is located. These two types of employees are not subject to U.S. Income taxes and therefore are not reported on IRS Form W-3. The number in part I line 5 (232) relates to the number of employees for whom IJM submitted W-2 forms to the IRS and therefore includes U.S. staff who earned any income from IJM throughout the year, not just the number of staff at year end.
