Part VI Section C Question 18

Crossroads is a private non-profit organization, however all documents are available upon request.

Part X Line 1

The figures represent monies remaining in client accounts, these are not assets of Crossroads but of our clients.

Part XI Line 9

Crossroads is a private non-profit, we have no "fund". All monies are client Social Security Benefits.

Crossroads is a large escrow account where client benefits are held until the client needs them for rent, food, clothing, etc.

The monies that are not spent stay in the client accounts and are rolled over to the next accounting period.

The monies shouldn't be considered assets of Crossroads, they do not belong to Crossroads.

We work very simply. The monies come in as Social Security Benefits, Crossroads pays bills for our clients with said benefits.

Each client has his or her own account where we keep track of their individual benefits.

We have been in operation since 1993. Our methods are approved by the Social Security Administration.

Every three years a representative from the Social Security Administration comes to our office to insure we are following all SSA guidelines.
