Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The Credit Union is exempt, by statute, from federal income taxes. The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) has issued a clarification in the form of a Technical Advice Memorandum (TAMs) on the issue of Unrelated Business Income Tax (UBIT). The IRS has indicated this memorandum will clarify its position on what types of revenue are subject to UBIT. However, IRC Section 511 imposes a tax on the unrelated business income derived by state-chartered credit unions. Many states have similar laws related to various activities conducted by state-chartered credit unions. At this time, there is uncertainty regarding whether the Credit Union should pay income tax on certain types of net taxable income from activities that may be considered by taxing authorities as unrelated to the purpose for which the Credit Union was granted nontaxable status. The taxing authorities have the ability to assess taxes, penalties, and interest for any years for which no tax return was filed. Management has evaluated the Credit Union's tax positions and concluded that the Credit Union has taken no uncertain tax positions that require adjustments to the financial statements. In the opinion of Management, any liability resulting from taxing authorities imposing income taxes on the net taxable income from activities deemed to be unrelated to the Credit Union's nontaxable status is not expected to have a material effect on the Credit Union's financial position or results of operations. While it seems likely that certain income streams of state chartered credit unions will be subject to UBIT, the issue remains open. The Credit Union files IRS forms 990 and 990T in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and has a December 31 tax year end.
