Employment/education services offer an array of programs and services assisting participants to obtain and retain employment. Programs are designed to meet the demands of the job market and prepare participants to earn a sustainable wage. Several programs are offered including GED preparation, employment readiness and retention skills, life skills training, and community leadership development. GED prep classes are designed to meet the needs of the non-traditional student with classes offered in the afternoon and evenings. Students work at their own pace individually with a tutor or in small groups. The community leadership development program provides training for emerging leaders and strengthens the skills of those who hold leadership positions in the community. Utilizing curriculum developed by the university of Georgia's fanning leadership institute and the pew partnership for civic change, the CLD program provides practical tools enabling neighborhood residents to work together and with local government officials to effectively identify and address problems in their community. The volunteer program provides a variety of administrative and direct service opportunities for individuals or groups to support all of the families served by the center for family resources.
(Code	) (Expenses $		including grants of $	) (Revenue $	)
Community Leadership Development classes develop new leaders in targeted local neighborhoods. Volunteer programs allow an individual or group to support all of the families we serve.
