Part IV, Line 1 - Supported Organizations Not Listed by Name

There are 7 organiations listed in the governing documents that receive 70% of the support funds distributed by the trust. The remaining 30% is given at the discretion of the trustee. The trustee receives letters from various organizations throughout the year requesting support. The trustee then chooses those organizations he feels most needs the support of the trust. Once the trustee decides which organization he will send support to, he requests a copy of their 501(c)(3) IRS Exemption notice to confirm the supported organization's non-profit status. Once non-profit status is confirmed he will submit a check for an amount he determines necessary for the supported organization. There is a continuing relationship the trustee has with several discretionary supported organizations. The trustee has given funds to several organizations each year that are not required by the governing documents and these organizations have come to rely on these funds from the trust.

Part IV, Section D, Line 2 - Explanation of Working Relationship
There are 7 supported organizations that are required to receive donations in the governing documents. These organizations expect to receive support from the trust every year. The majority of organizations that the trustee can choose at his discretion to send support to have been selected in previous years. These organizations can expect to receive support in the next couple of years if none was given in the current year. A historic and continuing relationship is developed with these discretionary funded orgainzations.

Form 990, Part XI, Line 9 - Other Changes in Net Assets Explanation

2013 Adjustments to Stock Costs $ 8,160

After filing our 2013 990 with the IRS, it came to our attention when preparing the annual account to file with the Clerk of Court that our stock purchase costs had been overstated by $8,160.00 on our documents used to prepare the annual account and the 990 form. This oversight was discovered due to a change in persons preparing the annual account for the Clerk of Court. The stock costs have been adjusted down by $8,160.00 and this amount is reflected in the Investments listed on Form 990 Part X Line 11 (B) and
