Form 990, Part VI, Line 1a Delegate broad authority to a committee	Board-Delegated Power Committees of Directors, Executive Committee Pursuant to Section 14-3-825 of the Act, the Board of Directors, by resolution passed by a majority of the Directors then in office, may designate one or more other committees to have to the extent provided in such resolution. The Board of Directors may designate and exercise the Board of Director's authority under Section 14-3-801 of the Act ("Board-delegated powers") such committees as it determines necessary or appropriate for the conduct of the Corporation's affairs, each such committee to consist of such Directors of the Corporation and such other persons (who formerly were members of the Board of Directors) as are appointed by the board who shall serve at the pleasure of the Board of Directors. Except to the extent that such grant of powers is limited by Section 14-3-825 of the Act, to the extent provided in the resolution, any such committee with Board-delegated powers will have and may exercise all the authority of the Board of Directors granted to it by resolution of the Board of Directors. Such committee or committees will have such name or names as may be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the Board of Directors. Each committee shall elect a chairman from among the members of such committee. Each committee shall also keep regular minutes of its proceedings and report the same to the Board of Directors when required. The Board of Directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the Directors then in office, at any time change the members of, fill vacancies in, limit, expand or alter the authority of, and discharge any committee of said Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may, but shall not be required to, create an Executive Committee of the Board of Directors. If created, the Executive Committee shall be created pursuant to this Section 7 1 and shall, in the interim between meetings of the Board of Directors, have and exercise such power and authority of the Board of Directors under Section 14-3-801 in the management of the affairs of the Corporation as are delegated by the Board of Directors as limited by the Act.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a Process to establish compensation of top management official	The human resources department does a market review of compensation for all officers. That analysis is compared to historical compensation and evaluated relative to the percentile for the industry and size. Combined with performance evaluations, the analysis is presented to the Compensation Committee comprised of members of the governing board for their review, deliberation, and decision about where to set compensation for the officers. This process was used for the compensation of the President, Chairman & CEO, the Executive VP & CFO, and the General Counsel. Minutes are maintained to document the deliberations and actions of the committee. In 2014, the compensation committee met, and approved a salary increase for the Debra Lockwood, CFO and Donovan Hicks, Chief Legal Officer, effective January 1, 2014. A salary increase was also approved for David Grand, Associate Counsel, effective March 1, 2014. Also, bonuses were approved for the Debra Lockwood, Donovan Hicks, Marla Scannicchio, and David Grand.
