Stevenson School, California

We believe in independent schools.

Our family has been educated and worked in independent schools for more than 50 years, and we believe in the lifelong education provided by these remarkable institutions. Regardless of the size, age, or location, each NAIS secondary school plays a prominent role in its community; consistently sends campus leaders to colleges and universities; and boasts a highly-accomplished alumni base. We strongly support these schools and their missions.

Our Mission

Peter B. Benedict II

The Benedict Foundation for Independent Schools supports faculty professional growth and students in need of financial assistance in NAIS schools with secondary programs. Emphasis is placed on schools where impact would be greatest and that use challenge grants to leverage support.

Applications are accepted from January 1 through March 31.

All materials are reviewed in June and notifications are sent in July.

application. Once completed, you will need to submit three additional PDF documents online.

Required PDF Document Uploads

After completing the online application in step 3, you will be required to upload three documents:

1. Letter from Head of School

2. Proposal (limited to 5 pages), which includes:

- Brief history of the school
- Mission statement
- Project description and time period
- Total amount requested
- Anticipated benefits to be derived from the grant

3. Copy of the tax determination letter(s) indicating qualification as a 501(c)(3) organization

Notifications

Notification of the final decision will be sent in July. If awarded a grant, the school is required to send the Foundation a verification of receipt of the gift.

Final Follow-Up

A brief final follow-up, signed by the Head of School, on the status of the funded school project is requested by June 1 of the year following receipt of the grant.
