Part IV Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2, Part III, column (b), and any other additional information.

There is a written manual with attached copies of various forms that need to be completed before assistance can be rendered. New Clients complete an application which ask for name, address, phone #, number of children in home and information on client income and expenses. All new clients are interviewed to confirm information is complete.

Client must provide photo ID cards and social security card for each person that will be receiving food. Eligibility is determined by comparing the information with current government guidelines. Copies of ID and social security cards are attached to the application. Food assistance is available every three months. On future visits the information is checked to see if there are any changes and the visits are logged with client signing statement that they received assistance during the visit. A different volunteer will distribute the food to the client. We communicate regularly with other local charities and share information with them on what clients are served and they respond in kind.

Part II Supplemental Information. Provide the information required by Part I, lines 30b, 32b, and 33, and whether the organization is reporting in Part I, column (b), the number of contributions, the number of items received, or a combination of both. Also complete this part for any additional information.

All of the non-cash donations are food items or personal hygiene supplies. Food products are our major source of donations. Donations are received:

- 1) Food is brought to our facility;
- 2) Two major food drives during the year, the Boy Scouts and the Postal Service collects lots of food during these drives and this organization receives a full share;
- 3) A number of churches regularly collect food and bring it to us, others have periodic drives and also bring food to us;
- 4) Schools and other organizations or clubs periodically also do food drives;
- 5) We regularly receive bread and bakery products; and
- 6) During growing seasons we often receive fresh fruit and vegetables.

Value of the food products is determined by matching typical assortment of food received and pricing it periodically at local food markets.

Food is packaged to provide a balanced diet and is based on the number of members in the family or other unit being fed.

Most of the perishable items are purchased with available funds, mainly at Second Harvest Food Bank where we can make very reasonable purchases, especially meats. Items such as eggs and butter are purchased to add to the assortment. Most items that are donated are boxed or canned. We do have several refrigerators and freezers to store perishable items.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b. Monthly reports of services are prepared by the Pantry Manager or Asst. Pantry Manager and filed with the Secretary for review and archiving. The monthly totals are added to the annual report of services provided. This makes up most of the data for services provided and allows tracking of food distributions. Individual registration and sign in cards are kept on site at the Pantry facility. The summarized reports are available to all trustees. This information along with the financial reports are used to prepare the annual 990 form and associated schedules. This is normally reviewed by the Treasurer and copies of the returns are make available to all trustees and a copy is kept at the pantry office.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 19. Copies of the tax filings are kept at the Food Pantry Office and are available upon request for review. Schedules that contain names and addresses of donors (if applicable) are not made available for public inspection. A copy of the governing documents is also available for review upon request. Year end statements would be available if requested. No conflict of interest policy has been adopted so no policy statement is available. This has never been an issue. In the future we hope to have a website and make information about the organization available as well as various documents and filings.
