The modular building was placed on land owned by Harrisonburg First Church of the Nazarene. If Hope Distributed were to move its base of operations to another location in the future, it would not be feasible to move the building. Therefore, the parties agreed that the ownership of the building should be by Harrisonburg First Church of the Nazarene and Hope Distributed would lease the building for the indefinite future.

The County of Rockingham wanted to assess personal property tax on the van, even though it was owned and operated for the exempt purposes of distributing food to low-income families. In order to avoid paying this tax, the organization transferred the vehicle to Harrisonburg First Church of the Nazarene and is leasing it back.
