PRIOR PERIOD ADJUSTMENTS:

IN PREVIOUSLY ISSUED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS, THE ORGANIZATION DID NOT RECORD A PROMISE TO GIVE FOR THE FAIR VALUE OF AN IN-KIND CONTRIBUTION MADE IN 2013 OF THREE YEARS OF NETWORK SUPPORT AND CLOUD STORAGE SERVICES. ACCOUNTING STANDARDS REQUIRE THAT THE CONTRIBUTION OF SERVICES OVER SEVERAL YEARS BE RECORDED AS TEMPORARILY RESTRICTED REVENUE IN THE PERIOD PROMISED. THE PROMISE IS REFLECTED AS A TEMPORARILY RESTRICTED NET ASSETS DUE TO THE TIME RESTRICTION AND MEASURED AT THE FAIR VALUE OF THE SERVICES TO BE PROVIDED TO THE ORGANIZATION. THIS PRIOR PERIOD ADJUSTMENT REFLECTS THIS ADJUSTMENT MADE TO THE ORGANIZATION'S FINANCIAL STATEMENTS. SINCE THIS ADJUSTMENT REPRESENTS GIFTS OF SERVICES, THERE IS NO IMPACT ON THE 2013 PUBLIC SUPPORT.

ARTICLE I OFFICES

The principal office of the Corporation shall be located 1125 12th Avenue South Nashville, Tennessee 37203-4709 in Davidson County. The Corporation may have such other offices, either within or without the State of Tennessee, as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the Corporation may require from time to time.

The registered office of the Corporation required to be maintained in the State of Tennessee by the Tennessee Nonprofit Corporation Act may, but need not, be identical with the principal office in the State of Tennessee, and the address of the registered office may be changed from time to time by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE II
PURPOSES AND USE OF FUNDS

Section 2.1 Purposes. The purposes of the Corporation are those set forth in its Charter, as from time to time amended; namely, the Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, educational, literary and scientific purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law, which purposes include, but are not limited to, the following: (a) providing services to homeless veterans and other veterans of the Armed Forces of the United States, including food, clothing, shelter, medical, dental and health care services or referrals, as well as job training and referrals, and (b) coordinating with other agencies, both governmental and nonprofit, in the delivery of such services.

Section 2.2 Use of Funds. The Corporation is not formed for financial or pecuniary gain, and no part of the assets, income, or profits of the Corporation shall be distributable to, or inure to the benefit of, its directors or officers or any other private person, except as provided in Section 3.11 and Section 4.10, as reasonable compensation for services rendered to the Corporation, and except to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes of the Corporation, as set forth in its Charter and Section 2.1 above.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 3.1 General Powers. The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by its Board of Directors, which shall exercise in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation all of the rights and privileges legally exercisable by the Corporation as a corporate entity, except as otherwise may be provided by law, the Charter of the Corporation, and these By-laws.

Section 3.2 Number, Tenure, and Qualifications. The number of directors of the Corporation shall be not less than three (3) and not more than thirty (35). Provided, however, the number of directors may be increased or decreased from time to time by the Board of Directors by amendment of this By-law, but no decrease shall have the effect of shortening the term of an incumbent director or reduce the number of directors below three (3). The directors shall be elected by the Board of Directors for a term of three (3) years. In the event additional members are added to the Board of Directors, the initial terms of such additional directors shall be staggered in such a manner so as to assure that the terms of office of not more than one-half (1/2) of all the directors will expire in any one year. Each director shall hold office until his or her term shall have expired and his or her successor shall have been appointed and qualified, or until his or her earlier resignation, removal from office, or death. A retiring director may succeed himself or herself. Directors shall be natural persons who have attained the age of twenty-one (21) years, but need not be residents of the State of Tennessee.

Section 3.3 Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held on the last business day of the fifth month following the close of each fiscal year, or at such other time and date prior thereto and following the close of the fiscal year as shall be determined by the Board of Directors. The purpose of the annual meeting shall be to elect directors and officers and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting. If the election of directors and officers shall not be held on the day designated herein for any annual meeting of the Board of Directors, or at any adjournment thereof, the Board of Directors shall cause the election to be held at a special meeting of the Board of Directors as soon thereafter as may be convenient.

Section 3.4 Regular Meetings. The regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at least quarterly, unless postponed by common consent of the Board, for the purpose of the transaction of such business as may properly be brought before the meeting. Regular meetings shall be held at such time and place as the Board of Directors shall from time to time determine.

Section 3.5 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the President or at the request of any two (2) directors. The President shall fix the place, either within or without the State of Tennessee, as the place for holding any special meeting.

Section 3.6 Notice. Notice of any special meeting shall be given at least five (5) days prior thereto by written notice delivered personally or mailed to each director at his or her business or home address or by email. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail, so addressed, with postage thereon prepaid. If notice be given by email, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when the email is received. Any director may waive notice of any meeting. The attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. The business to be transacted at, or the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors must be specified in the notice of such meeting.

Section 3.7 Quorum. A majority of the total number of directors in office shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board of Directors. The members of the Board of Directors, or any committee designated by such Board, may participate in a meeting of the Board or of such committee by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear one another; and participation in a meeting pursuant to this provision shall constitute presence in person at such meeting. The directors shall be promptly furnished a copy of the minutes of the meetings of the Board of Directors.

Section 3.8 Manner of Acting. Each director shall be entitled to one (1) vote upon any matter properly submitted to the Board of Directors for a vote. The act of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors, except as may otherwise be specifically provided by law, by the Charter of the Corporation, or by these By-laws.

Section 3.9 Action Without a Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors, or any committee thereof, may be taken without a meeting, if all directors or committee members, as the case may be, consent to the taking of such action without a meeting by signing one or more written consents describing the action taken and indicating each director's or committee member's vote or abstention on the action. Such consents may be given by email attachments sent to the President. The affirmative vote of the number of directors or committee members, as the case may be, that would be necessary to authorize or take action at a meeting is the act of the Board of Directors or committee without a meeting. The written consent or consents shall be included in the minutes or filed with the corporate records reflecting the action taken. Action taken by written consent is effective when the last director or committee member, as the case may be, signs the consent, unless the consent specifies an effective date.

Section 3.10 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors, including vacancies created by the removal of directors without cause or for cause shall be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, so long as the requirements of Section 3.2 are met. A director designated to fill a vacancy shall serve for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office, or, if there is no predecessor, until the next election of directors. If a vacancy is not filled within ninety (90) days of the event which resulted in there being fewer directors than required by the By-laws or Charter, any director may apply to a court having equity jurisdiction in the county in which the Corporation has its principal office to have such court appoint a sufficient number of directors so that the Corporation will have the number of directors required by its By-laws or Charter, whichever number is greater. Any directorship to be filled by reason of an increase in the number of directors shall be filled by election by the Board of Directors for a term of office continuing only until the next election of directors.

Section 3.11 Compensation. Each director may be paid his or her reasonable expenses, if any, of attendance at each meeting of the Board of Directors, after submitting substantiation of such expenses to the Corporation. No such payment shall preclude any director from serving the Corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

Section 3.12 Presumption of Assent. A director of the Corporation who is present at a meeting of the Board of Directors at which action on any corporate matter is taken shall be presumed to have assented to the action taken, unless his or her dissent shall be entered in the minutes of the meeting, or unless he or she shall file his or her written dissent to such action with the person acting as the secretary of the meeting before the adjournment thereof or shall forward such dissent by registered mail to the Secretary of the Corporation immediately after the adjournment of the meeting. Such right to dissent shall not apply to a director who voted in favor of such action.

Section 3.13 Removal. Any or all of the directors may be removed for cause or without cause by vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the directors then in office. As with other votes, this vote may be accomplished by written consent, which may be sent as an email attachment to the President. For purposes of this provision, "cause" shall mean final conviction of a felony, declaration of unsound mind by court order, adjudication of bankruptcy, nonacceptance of office, conduct prejudicial to the interest of the Corporation, or absence from three (3) or more consecutive meetings of the Board. Removal of a director shall also constitute removal as an officer of the Corporation and as a member of all committees of the Board.

Section 3.14 Resignation. A director may resign his or her membership at any time by tendering his or her resignation in writing or by email to the President. A resignation shall become effective upon the date specified in such notice or, if no date is specified, upon receipt of the resignation by the Corporation at its principal place of business.

ARTICLE IV

OFFICERS

Section 4.1 Number. The officers of the Corporation shall be a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary, and a Treasurer, each of whom shall be elected in accordance with this Article. The Board may also elect such other officers and assistant officers from among the Board membership as may be deemed necessary. Except for the offices of President and Secretary, any two (2) or more offices may be held by the same person.

Section 4.2 Election and Term of Office. The Board of Directors shall name a Nominating Committee at least one month before each annual meeting of the Board of Directors at which officers are to be elected. The officers of the Corporation shall be elected every two years from among the Board membership by the Board of Directors at its annual meeting following the report of the Nominating Committee. Each officer shall hold office for a term of two (2) years or until his or her earlier death, resignation or removal from office in the manner hereinafter provided.

Section 4.3 Removal. Any Board member removed from office pursuant to Section 3.13 shall be automatically removed as an officer. The Board of Directors may remove any officer when, in its judgment, the best interests of the Corporation will be served thereby.

Section 4.4 Vacancies. A vacancy in any office because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification, or otherwise may be filled by the Board of Directors after a director's vacancy has been filled for the unexpired portion of the term in accordance with Section 3.10.

Section 4.5 Resignation. An officer may resign his or her office at any time by tendering his or her resignation in writing or by email to the President or, in the case of the resignation of the President, to the Board of Directors. A resignation shall become effective upon the date specified in such notice, or, if no date is specified, upon receipt of the resignation by the Corporation at its principal place of business.

Section 4.6 President. The President shall be the senior officer of the Board of Directors of the Corporation and, subject to the affirmative actions of the Board of Directors, shall in general oversee the conduct of the business and affairs of the Corporation by the Executive Director of the Corporation and his or her staff. He or she shall, when present, preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors. He or she may sign, with the Secretary or any other proper officer of the Corporation thereunto authorized by the Board of Directors, deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts, or other instruments which the Board of Directors has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board of Directors or these By-laws to some other officer or agent of the Corporation, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed; and in general shall perform all duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors from time to time.

Section 4.7 Vice-President. In the absence of the President or in the event of his or her death, inability, or refusal to act, the Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President (pending election, if necessary, of a successor pursuant to Section 4.4 above), and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President. The Vice-President shall perform such other duties as may from time to time be assigned to him or her by the President or by the Board of Directors.

Section 4.8 Secretary. The Secretary shall: (a) keep the minutes of the proceedings of the Board of Directors in one or more books provided for that purpose; (b) see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of these By-laws or as required by law; (c) be custodian of the corporate records and of the seal of the Corporation and see that the seal of the Corporation is affixed to all documents, the execution of which is duly authorized on behalf of the Corporation under its seal; (d) keep a register of the post office address of each member of the Board of Directors, which address shall be furnished to the Secretary by each director; and (e) in general perform all duties incident to the office of secretary and such other duties as may from time to time be assigned to him or her by the President or by the Board of Directors.

Section 4.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer shall: (a) have charge and custody of and be responsible for all funds and securities of the Corporation; (b) receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Corporation from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Corporation in such banks, trust companies, or other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Article VII of these By-laws; (c) disburse the funds of the Corporation in accordance with the directives of the Board of Directors, taking proper vouchers for such disbursements, and render to the Board of Directors, at its annual meeting and at such other times as may be requested by the Board of Directors, an account of all the transactions of the Treasurer and of the financial condition of the Corporation; and (d) in general perform all of the duties incident to the office of Treasurer and such other duties as may from time to time be assigned to him or her by the President or by the Board of Directors. The Corporation shall pay the premiums on any corporate surety bonds furnished for the Treasurer.

Section 4.10 Expenses. Reasonable expenses incurred by the officers in the course of conducting the affairs of the Corporation shall be reimbursed by the Corporation upon proper substantiation.

Section 4.11 Voting Securities of Corporation. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board of Directors, the President shall have full power and authority on behalf of the Corporation to attend and to act and vote at any meetings of security holders, partnerships, or corporations in which the Corporation may hold securities, and at such meetings shall possess and may execute any and all rights and powers incident to the ownership of such securities which the Corporation might have possessed and exercised if it had been present. The Board of Directors may from time to time by resolution confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

ARTICLE V

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Section 5.1 Appointment. The Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the entire Board, may designate two (2) or more of its members to serve as an Executive Committee. The designation of such committee and the delegation of authority thereto shall not operate to relieve the Board of Directors, or any member thereof, of any responsibility imposed by law.

Section 5.2 Authority. The Executive Committee, when the Board of Directors is not in session, shall have and may exercise all the authority of the Board of Directors except to the extent, if any, that such authority shall be limited by these By-laws. All action taken by the Executive Committee shall be subject to ratification by the Board of Directors. However, the Executive Committee shall not have the authority of the Board of Directors with respect to filling any vacancy on the Board; amending or repealing any resolution of the Board of Directors which by its express terms is not so amendable or repealable; amending or repealing the Charter or the By-laws of the Corporation; adopting a plan of merger or consolidation; selling, leasing, or otherwise disposing of all or substantially all the property and assets of the Corporation other than in the usual and regular course of its business; or voluntarily dissolving the Corporation or revoking a voluntary dissolution.

Section 5.3 Meetings. Regular meetings of the Executive Committee may be held without notice at such times and places as the Executive Committee may fix from time to time by resolution. Special meetings of the Executive Committee may be called by any member thereof upon not less than one (1) days' notice, stating the place, date, and hour of the meeting, which notice may be written or oral, and if mailed, shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the member of the Executive Committee at his or her business or home address. Any member of the Executive Committee may waive notice of any meeting. The notice of a meeting of the Executive Committee shall state the business proposed to be transacted at the meeting.

Section 5.4 Quorum. A majority of the members of the Executive Committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting thereof; and action of the Executive Committee must be authorized by the affirmative vote of a majority of all members present at a meeting at which a quorum is present.

Section 5.5 Action Without a Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Executive Committee at a meeting may be taken without a meeting in the manner described in Section 3.9 above.

Section 5.6 Procedure. The Executive Committee may fix its own rules of procedure, provided such rules are not inconsistent with these By-laws. The Executive Committee shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and report its proceedings to the Board of Directors for its information at the next meeting of the Board held after such proceedings shall have been had.

ARTICLE VI

All committees shall consist of two (2) or more members, shall be under the control and serve at the pleasure of the Board, shall have charge of such duties as may be assigned to them by the Board or these By-laws, shall maintain a permanent record of their actions and proceedings, and shall regularly submit a report of their actions to the Board, which shall ratify the actions of each committee. The President, or his or her designee, shall serve on each committee as an ex-officio member.

Section 6.2 Standing Committees. The Board of Directors shall maintain the following standing committees, in addition to the Executive Committee:

- (a) Programs

- (c) Strategic Planning
- (d) Finance and Audit
- (e) Nominating and such additional standing committees as it may determine from time to time to be necessary or desirable for its proper functioning.

Section 6.3 General Provisions for Standing Committees.

(a) Unless otherwise provided herein, the Board of Directors shall appoint the members of all standing committees at a special meeting of the Board held as soon as practical after the filing of the Charter, which members shall hold office until the first annual meeting of the Board, until their successors are elected and qualified, or until their earlier death, resignation or removal. Thereafter, unless otherwise provided herein, the President, with the consent of the Board of Directors, shall appoint the members of all standing committees at the annual meeting of the Board or as soon as practicable thereafter, to hold office for a term of one (1) year, commencing immediately following the meeting at which they are appointed and ending after the close of the next annual meeting of the Board, until their successors are appointed and qualified, or until their earlier death, resignation or removal. Committee members need not be members of the Board of Directors, but shall be selected based on their expertise and familiarity with respect to the subject matter of the committee to which appointed.

(b) Unless otherwise provided herein, the President shall appoint all chairmen of all standing committees from among the membership of the Board of Directors.

(c) A member of a standing committee may resign at any time by giving written notice to the President and the chairman of the committee from which the member is resigning.

(d) The Board may remove a member of a standing committee when, in its judgment, the best interests of the Corporation will be served by such removal.

(f) Meetings of standing committees may be called by their respective chairmen or by the President. Each committee shall meet as often as is necessary to perform its functions.

(g) Each standing committee may adopt rules for its own governance, provided such rules are not inconsistent with the law, the Charter or these By-laws.

(h) A majority of the members of a committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any committee meeting. The act of a majority of the members of a standing committee present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the committee. Unless otherwise provided, a chairman of a standing committee shall be entitled to vote on any question before the committee.

(i) Each standing committee may invite additional individuals with expertise in a pertinent area to meet with and assist the committee. Such individuals shall not vote or be counted in determining the existence of a quorum and may be excluded from any executive session of the committee.

Section 6.4 Ad Hoc Committees. The Board of Directors may from time to time by resolution create such ad hoc committees as it believes necessary to investigate matters or advise the Board. Ad hoc committees shall limit their activities to the accomplishment of the tasks for which created and shall have no power to act except as specifically conferred by resolution of the Board. Such committees shall operate until they have accomplished their tasks or been discharged by the Board.

ARTICLE VII

Section 7.3 Checks, Drafts, etc. All checks, drafts, or other orders for the payment of money, notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued in the name of the Corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers, agent or agents, of the Corporation and in such manner as shall from time to time be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors.

Section 7.4 Deposits. All funds of the Corporation not otherwise employed shall be deposited from time to time to the credit of the Corporation in such banks, trust companies, or other depositaries as the Board of Directors may select.

ARTICLE IX

WAIVER OF NOTICE

Whenever any notice is required to be given to any director or committee member of the Corporation under the provisions of these By-laws, the Charter of the Corporation, or the Tennessee Nonprofit Corporation Act, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice.

ARTICLE X

INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

Section 10.1 Right of Indemnification and Standards of Conduct. Any person who is made a party to a suit or proceeding by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director or officer of the Corporation may be indemnified by the Corporation in accordance with Section 10.2 against judgments, amounts paid in settlement and reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, actually and necessarily incurred as a result of such suit or proceeding, or any appeal therein, except in relation to matters as to which such director or officer is adjudged to have breached his or her duty to the Corporation under Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 48-58-301 (in the case of a director) or Section 48-58-403 (in the case of an officer), or under any act amendatory thereof, supplemental thereto, or substituted therefor. Any person made or threatened to be made a party to a suit or proceeding other than by or in the right of this Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor, whether civil or criminal, including a suit or proceeding by or in the right of any other corporation which any director or officer of the corporation served in any capacity at the request of this Corporation, by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director or officer of this or such other corporation, or served such other corporation in any capacity, may be indemnified by the Corporation in accordance with Section 10.2 against judgments, fines, amounts paid in settlement and reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, actually and necessarily incurred as a result of such suit or proceeding, or any appeal therein, if such director or officer acted in good faith for a purpose which he or she reasonably believed to be in the best interest of this or such other corporation and, in addition, in criminal actions or proceedings, had no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful.

Section 10.2 Determination of Right of Indemnification. (a) Any person referred to in Section 10.1 who has been wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding of the character described in Section 10.1 shall be entitled to indemnification as of right without any further action or approval by the Board of Directors. Except as provided in the immediately preceding sentence, any indemnification under Section 10.1 shall be made at the discretion of the Corporation, but only if (a) the Board of Directors, acting by majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, present or voting, shall find that the director or officer has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 10.1, or (b) if no such quorum of the Board of Directors is obtainable with due diligence, independent legal counsel shall deliver to the Corporation their written opinion that indemnification is proper in the circumstances because such director or officer has met such standard.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, no person referred to in Section 10.1 who has been made a party to any action, suit or proceeding of the character described in Section 10.1 shall be entitled to indemnification with respect to any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his or her duty to this Corporation or any other corporation which such person served in any capacity at the request of this Corporation, unless and except to the extent that the court in which such action, suit or proceeding was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability and in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the court shall deem proper.

Section 10.3 Advance of Expenses. Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding, only if authorized in the specific case (a) by the Board of Directors acting by majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who are not parties to such action, suit or proceeding upon a finding that the director or officer has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 10.1, or (b) if no such quorum of the Board of Directors is obtainable with due diligence, upon the opinion in writing of independent legal counsel that indemnification is proper in the circumstances because such director or officer has met such standard; provided that the Corporation shall have received an undertaking by or on behalf of the person receiving such advancement to repay such amount if he or she is ultimately found not to be entitled to indemnification or, where indemnification is granted, such portion of the amount so advanced by the Corporation or allowed by the court in excess of the indemnification to which he or she is entitled.

Section 10.4 Rights of Indemnification Cumulative. The rights of indemnification provided in this Article X shall be in addition to any rights to which any such director, officer or other person may otherwise be entitled under any by-law, agreement, or otherwise, including, without limitation, any person who was a director, officer or trustee of any association, corporation, partnership or trust which was a predecessor to this Corporation, whether resulting from a merger, consolidation or sale of assets, to the extent provided in any agreement setting forth the terms and conditions of such merger, consolidation or sale of assets, and shall be in addition to the power of this Corporation to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of this Corporation, or is or was a director or officer of any other corporation or served the same in any capacity at the request of this Corporation, against any liability asserted against him or her and incurred by him or her in any such capacity, or arising out of his or her status as such, regardless of whether the Corporation would have the power to indemnify him or her against such liability under this Article or otherwise.

ARTICLE XI

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Section 11.1 Generally. Except as otherwise provided by law, no transaction in which a director or officer has a personal or adverse interest shall be void or voidable solely for this reason, or solely because he or she is present at or participates in the meeting or his or her vote is counted if:

(a) The material facts as to his or her interest and as to the transaction are disclosed or are known to the Board of Directors or committee and the fact of such interest is noted in the minutes, and the Board of Directors or committee authorizes, approves or ratifies the transaction by a vote sufficient for such purpose, without counting the vote of the interested director or directors; or

(b) The transaction is fair and equitable as to the Corporation at the time it is authorized or approved, and the party asserting the fairness of the transaction establishes fairness.

Section 11.2 Quorum Requirements. Except as otherwise provided by law, common or interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Board of Directors or a committee thereof which authorizes, approves or ratifies a transaction.

ARTICLE XII

AMENDMENTS

These By-laws may be altered, amended, or repealed, and new By-laws may be adopted, upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office at any regular or special meeting, except to the extent that such alteration or amendment is inconsistent with Article XIII hereof.

ARTICLE XIII

EXEMPT STATUS

The Corporation has been organized and shall be operated for exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code and shall be exempt from taxation under Section 501(a). The Corporation intends to apply for recognition of its exempt status by filing Internal Revenue Service Form 1023 within the time prescribed under Section 508 and Treas. Reg. §1.508-1(a)(2), or any successor laws or rules or regulations. Any provision of these By-laws which would in any manner adversely affect the Corporation's tax exempt status shall be void and shall be deleted or modified as necessary to comply with all applicable requirements for the Corporation's maintenance of its tax exempt status.

These Amended Bylaws are confirmed as having been adopted as of this 19th day of June, 2014.
