Part III Information For Advance Consent Request				Yes	No
18	Is the applicant's requested change described in any revenue procedure, revenue ruling, notice, regulation, or other published guidance as an automatic change request? If "Yes," attach an explanation describing why the applicant is submitting its request under advance consent request procedures
19	Attach a full explanation of the legal basis supporting the proposed method for the item being changed. Include a detailed and complete description of the facts that explains how the law specifically applies to the applicant's situation and that demonstrates that the applicant is authorized to use the proposed method. Include all authority (statutes, regulations, published rulings, court cases, etc.) supporting the proposed method. Also, include either a discussion of the contrary authorities or a statement that no contrary authority exists.
20	Attach a copy of all documents related to the proposed change (see instructions)
21	Attach a statement of the applicant's reasons for the proposed change.
22	If the applicant is a member of a consolidated group for the year of change, do all other members of the consolidated group use the proposed method of accounting for the item being changed? If "No," attach an explanation
23a	Enter the amount of user fee attached to this application (see instructions) ▶ $
b	If the applicant qualifies for a reduced user fee, attach the required information or certification (see instructions)
Part IV Section 481(a) Adjustment				Yes	No
24	Does the applicable revenue procedure, revenue ruling, notice, regulation, or other published guidance require the applicant to implement the requested change in method of accounting on a cut-off basis rather than a section 481(a) adjustment? If "Yes," do not complete lines 25, 26, and 27 below
25	Enter the section 481(a) adjustment. Indicate whether the adjustment is an increase (+) or a decrease (-) in income ▶ $ 0.00 . Attach a summary of the computation and an explanation of the methodology used to determine the section 481(a) adjustment. If it is based on more than one component, show the computation for each component. If more than one applicant is applying for the method change on the same application, attach a list of the name, identification number, principal business activity code (see instructions), and the amount of the section 481(a) adjustment attributable to each applicant.

Part IV	Section 481(a) Adjustment (continued)	Yes	No
26	If the section 481(a) adjustment is an increase to income of less than $25,000, does the applicant elect to take the entire amount of the adjustment into account in the year of change?		✓
27	Is any part of the section 481(a) adjustment attributable to transactions between members of an affiliated group, a consolidated group, a controlled group, or other related parties? If "Yes," attach an explanation

Schedule A—Change in Overall Method of Accounting (If Schedule A applies, Part I below must be completed.)

Part I	Change in Overall Method (see instructions)	Amount
1	Enter the following amounts as of the close of the tax year preceding the year of change. If none, state "None." Also, attach a statement providing a breakdown of the amounts entered on lines 1a through 1g.	$
a	Income accrued but not received (such as accounts receivable)	$
b	Income received or reported before it was earned (such as advanced payments). Attach a description of the income and the legal basis for the proposed method.
c	Expenses accrued but not paid (such as accounts payable)
d	Prepaid expenses previously deducted
e	Supplies on hand previously deducted and/or not previously reported
f	Inventory on hand previously deducted and/or not previously reported. Complete Schedule D, Part II.
g	Other amounts (specify). Attach a description of the item and the legal basis for its inclusion in the calculation of the section 481(a) adjustment. ▶
h	Net section 481(a) adjustment (Combine lines 1a–1g.) Indicate whether the adjustment is an increase (+) or decrease (–) in income. Also enter the net amount of this section 481(a) adjustment amount on Part IV, line 25.	$
2	Is the applicant also requesting the recurring item exception under section 461(h)(3)?	☐ Yes ☐ No
3	Attach copies of the profit and loss statement (Schedule F (Form 1040) for farmers) and the balance sheet, if applicable, as of the close of the tax year preceding the year of change. Also attach a statement specifying the accounting method used when preparing the balance sheet. If books of account are not kept, attach a copy of the business schedules submitted with the Federal income tax return or other return (e.g., tax-exempt organization returns) for that period. If the amounts in Part I, lines 1a through 1g, do not agree with those shown on both the profit and loss statement and the balance sheet, attach a statement explaining the differences.

Part II	Change to the Cash Method For Advance Consent Request (see instructions)
Applicants requesting a change to the cash method must attach the following information.
1	A description of inventory items (items whose production, purchase, or sale is an income-producing factor) and materials and supplies used in carrying out the business.
2	An explanation as to whether the applicant is required to use the accrual method under any section of the Code or regulations.

Schedule B—Change to the Deferral Method for Advance Payments (see instructions)

1	If the applicant is requesting to change to the Deferral Method for advance payments described in section 5.02 of Rev. Proc. 2004-34, 2004-1 C.B. 991, attach the following information: a A statement explaining how the advance payments meet the definition in section 4.01 of Rev. Proc. 2004-34. b If the applicant is filing under the automatic change procedures of Rev. Proc. 2008-52, the information required by section 8.02(3)(a)-(c) of Rev. Proc. 2004-34. c If the applicant is filing under the advance consent provisions of Rev. Proc. 97-27, the information required by section 8.03(2)(a)-(f) of Rev. Proc. 2004-34.
2	If the applicant is requesting to change to the deferral method for advance payments described in Regulations section 1.451-5(b)(1)(ii), attach the following: a A statement explaining how the advance payments meet the definition in Regulations section 1.451-5(a)(1). b A statement explaining what portions of the advance payments, if any, are attributable to services, whether such services are integral to the provisions of goods or items, and whether any portions of the advance payments that are attributable to non-integral services are less than five percent of the total contract prices. See Regulations sections 1.451-5(a)(2)(i) and (3). c A statement explaining that the advance payments will be included in income no later than when included in gross receipts for purposes of the applicant's financial reports. See Regulations section 1.451-5(b)(1)(ii). d A statement explaining whether the inventorable goods exception of Regulations section 1.451-5(c) applies and if so, when substantial advance payments will be received under the contracts, and how the exception will limit the deferral of income.

Schedule C—Changes Within the LIFO Inventory Method (see instructions)Part I General LIFO Information

Complete this section if the requested change involves changes within the LIFO inventory method. Also, attach a copy of all Forms 970, Application To Use LIFO Inventory Method, filed to adopt or expand the use of the LIFO method.

- 1 Attach a description of the applicant's present and proposed LIFO methods and submethods for each of the following items:
 - a Valuing inventory (e.g., unit method or dollar-value method)
 - b Pooling (e.g., by line or type or class of goods, natural business unit, multiple pools, raw material content, simplified dollar-value method, inventory price index computation (IPIC) pools, vehicle-pool method, etc.)
 - c Pricing dollar-value pools (e.g., double-extension, index, link-chain, link-chain index, IPIC method, etc.)
 - d Determining the current-year cost of goods in the ending inventory (i.e., most recent acquisitions, earliest acquisitions during the current year, average cost of current-year acquisitions, or other permitted method)
- 2 If any present method or submethod used by the applicant is not the same as indicated on Form(s) 970 filed to adopt or expand the use of the method, attach an explanation.
- 3 If the proposed change is not requested for all the LIFO inventory, attach a statement specifying the inventory to which the change is and is not applicable.
- 4 If the proposed change is not requested for all of the LIFO pools, attach a statement specifying the LIFO pool(s) to which the change is applicable.
- 5 Attach a statement addressing whether the applicant values any of its LIFO inventory on a method other than cost. For example, if the applicant values some of its LIFO inventory at retail and the remainder at cost, identify which inventory items are valued under each method.
- 6 If changing to the IPIC method, attach a completed Form 970.

Part II Change in Pooling Inventories

- 1 If the applicant is proposing to change its pooling method or the number of pools, attach a description of the contents of, and state the base year for, each dollar-value pool the applicant presently uses and proposes to use.
- 2 If the applicant is proposing to use natural business unit (NBU) pools or requesting to change the number of NBU pools, attach the following information (to the extent not already provided) in sufficient detail to show that each proposed NBU was determined under Regulations section 1.472-8(b)(1) and (2):
 - a A description of the types of products produced by the applicant. If possible, attach a brochure.
 - b A description of the types of processes and raw materials used to produce the products in each proposed pool.
 - c If all of the products to be included in the proposed NBU pool(s) are not produced at one facility, state the reasons for the separate facilities, the location of each facility, and a description of the products each facility produces.
 - d A description of the natural business divisions adopted by the taxpayer. State whether separate cost centers are maintained and if separate profit and loss statements are prepared.
 - e A statement addressing whether the applicant has inventories of items purchased and held for resale that are not further processed by the applicant, including whether such items, if any, will be included in any proposed NBU pool.
 - f A statement addressing whether all items including raw materials, goods-in-process, and finished goods entering into the entire inventory investment for each proposed NBU pool are presently valued under the LIFO method. Describe any items that are not presently valued under the LIFO method that are to be included in each proposed pool.
 - g A statement addressing whether, within the proposed NBU pool(s), there are items both sold to unrelated parties and transferred to a different unit of the applicant to be used as a component part of another product prior to final processing.
- 3 If the applicant is engaged in manufacturing and is proposing to use the multiple pooling method or raw material content pools, attach information to show that each proposed pool will consist of a group of items that are substantially similar. See Regulations section 1.472-8(b)(3).
- 4 If the applicant is engaged in the wholesaling or retailing of goods and is requesting to change the number of pools used, attach information to show that each of the proposed pools is based on customary business classifications of the applicant's trade or business. See Regulations section 1.472-8(c).

Part I	Change in Reporting Income From Long-Term Contracts (Also complete Part III on pages 7 and 8.)

- Part II Change in Valuing Inventories Including Cost Allocation Changes (Also complete Part III on pages 7 and 8)

- 4a Check the appropriate boxes below

[illegible]

Part III Method of Cost Allocation (Complete this part if the requested change involves either property subject to section 263A or long-term contracts as described in section 460 (see instructions)).

Section A—Allocation and Capitalization Methods

Attach a description (including sample computations) of the present and proposed method(s) the applicant uses to capitalize direct and indirect costs properly allocable to real or tangible personal property produced and property acquired for resale, or to allocate and, where appropriate, capitalize direct and indirect costs properly allocable to long-term contracts. Include a description of the method(s) used for allocating indirect costs to intermediate cost objectives such as departments or activities prior to the allocation of such costs to long-term contracts, real or tangible personal property produced, and property acquired for resale. The description must include the following:

- 1 The method of allocating direct and indirect costs (i.e., specific identification, burden rate, standard cost, or other reasonable allocation method)
- 2 The method of allocating mixed service costs (i.e., direct reallocation, step-allocation, simplified service cost using the labor-based allocation ratio, simplified service cost using the production cost allocation ratio, or other reasonable allocation method)
- 3 The method of capitalizing additional section 263A costs (i.e., simplified production with or without the historic absorption ratio election, simplified resale with or without the historic absorption ratio election including permissible variations, the U.S. ratio, or other reasonable allocation method)

Section B—Direct and Indirect Costs Required To Be Allocated

Check the appropriate boxes showing the costs that are or will be fully included, to the extent required, in the cost of real or tangible personal property produced or property acquired for resale under section 263A or allocated to long-term contracts under section 460. Mark "N/A" in a box if those costs are not incurred by the applicant. If a box is not checked, it is assumed that those costs are not fully included to the extent required. Attach an explanation for boxes that are not checked.

If "Yes," state the election made ►
- 4a To the extent not already provided, attach a statement describing the property being changed. Include in the description the type of property, the year the property was placed in service, and the property's use in the applicant's trade or business or income-producing activity.
- b If the property is residential rental property, did the applicant live in the property before renting it? ☐ Yes ☐ No
- c Is the property public utility property? ☐ Yes ☒ No
- 5 To the extent not already provided in the applicant's description of its present method, attach a statement explaining how the property is treated under the applicant's present method (e.g., depreciable property, inventory property, supplies under Regulations section 1.162-3, nondepreciable section 263(a) property, property deductible as a current expense, etc.)
- 6 If the property is not currently treated as depreciable or amortizable property, attach a statement of the facts supporting the proposed change to depreciate or amortize the property.
- 7 If the property is currently treated and/or will be treated as depreciable or amortizable property, provide the following information for both the present (if applicable) and proposed methods:
- a The Code section under which the property is or will be depreciated or amortized (e.g., section 168(g))
- b The applicable asset class from Rev. Proc. 87-56, 1987-2 C.B. 674, for each asset depreciated under section 168 (MACRS) or under section 1400L, the applicable asset class from Rev. Proc. 83-35, 1983-1 C.B. 745, for each asset depreciated under former section 168 (ACRS), an explanation why no asset class is identified for each asset for which an asset class has not been identified by the applicant
- c The facts to support the asset class for the proposed method
- d The depreciation or amortization method of the property, including the applicable Code section (e.g., 200% declining balance method under section 168(b)(1))
- e The useful life, recovery period, or amortization period of the property
- f The applicable convention of the property
- g A statement of whether or not the additional first-year special depreciation allowance (for example, as provided by section 168(k), 168(l), 168(m), 168(n), 1400L(b), or 1400N(d)) was or will be claimed for the property. If not, also provide an explanation as to why no special depreciation allowance was or will be claimed.

Page 3, Part II, Line 12a, Item Being Changed

The Applicant is requesting a change in method of accounting under section 10.11 of the Appendix of Rev. Proc. 2011-14, as modified by Rev. Proc. 2014-16, to change its method of accounting to currently deduct incidental repair and maintenance costs specified below that were improperly capitalized.

The types of tangible property to which this method change request relates include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Real property/leasehold improvements
- Land improvements
- Equipment
- Furniture and fixtures
- Computers and components
- Software

The types of repair and maintenance costs to which this change applies are described below and are hereinafter collectively referred to as "repair and maintenance costs." Typical examples of such costs include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Roof repair
- Wall repair and maintenance
- Window/door repair
- Carpet repair and maintenance
- Electrical/plumbing repair
- HVAC repair
- Computer and components repair
- Equipment repair and maintenance
- Furniture and fixtures refinishing and recovering

These amounts are deductible under Reg. section 1.162-4, if the amounts are not otherwise required to be capitalized. Expenditures that meet any of the capitalization requirements under Reg. section 1.263(a)-3 (relating to betterments, restorations, adaptation, etc.) will continue to be capitalized under section 263(a) and are not included in this method change request.

The Applicant is requesting a change in method of accounting under section 10.11 of the Appendix of Rev. Proc. 2011-14, as modified by Rev. Proc. 2014-16, to change its method of accounting to capitalize repair and maintenance costs specified below as amounts paid to improve property that was previously deducted.

The types of tangible property to which this method change request relates include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Real property/leasehold improvements
- Land improvements
- Equipment
- Furniture and fixtures
- Computers and components
- Software

The types of repair and maintenance costs to which this change applies are described below and are hereinafter collectively referred to as “capital expenditures.” Typical examples of such costs include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Roof repair
- Wall repair and maintenance
- Window/door repair
- Carpet repair and maintenance
- Electrical/plumbing repair
- HVAC repair
- Computer and components repair
- Equipment repair and maintenance
- Furniture and fixtures refinishing and recovering

These amounts are capitalized under Reg. section 1.263(a)-3, if the amounts are not otherwise required to be deducted. Expenditures that meet any of the capitalization requirements under Reg. section 1.263(a)-3 (relating to betterments, restorations, adaptation, etc.) will continue to be capitalized under section 263(a) and are not included in this method change request. Expenditures paid for the repair or maintenance of rotatable or temporary spare parts for which the optional method of accounting for spare parts is used are not included in this method change request.

The Applicant is requesting a change in method of accounting under section 10.11 of the Appendix of Rev. Proc. 2011-14, as modified by Rev. Proc. 2014-16, to change its method of accounting in identifying the unit of property and in identifying the building structure or building systems.

The unit of property for these property types is identified under Reg. section 1.263(a)-3(e).

The Applicant is requesting a change in method of accounting under section 10.11 of the Appendix of Rev. Proc. 2011-14, as modified by Rev. Proc. 2014-16, to change its method of accounting to deduct non-incidental material and supply costs when used or consumed in operations.

The types of non-incidental material and supply costs to which this change applies are described below and are hereinafter collectively referred to as “material and supply costs.” Typical examples of such costs include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Office supplies

These amounts are deductible under Reg. section 1.162-3, if the amounts are not otherwise required to be capitalized. Expenditures for which the election to capitalize and depreciate certain materials and supplies under Reg. section 1.162-3(d) (relating to rotatable spare parts, temporary spare parts, or standby emergency spare parts) is made will continue to be capitalized and are not included in this method change request. Expenditures for which the optional method of accounting for rotatable and temporary spare parts under Reg. section 1.162-3(e) is used are not included in this method change request.

The Applicant has elected the de minimis safe harbor under Reg. section 1.263(a)-1(f). Expenditures paid for materials and supplies to which the de minimis safe harbor is applied are not treated as amounts paid for materials and supplies for this method change request.

The Applicant is requesting a change in method of accounting under section 10.11 of the Appendix of Rev. Proc. 2011-14, as modified by Rev. Proc. 2014-16, to change its method of accounting to deduct incidental material and supply costs in taxable year amounts are paid.

The types of incidental material and supply costs to which this change applies are described below and are hereinafter collectively referred to as “material and supply costs.” Typical examples of such costs include, but are not limited to, the following:

Page 3, Part II, Line 12b, Present Method of Accounting

Under the present method of accounting, the Applicant capitalizes and depreciates these expenditures over a period of 3, 5, 10, 15 or 39 years, using the mid-month or half-year convention and straight-line or 200 percent declining balance method, as applicable.

Under the present method of accounting, the Applicant currently deducts these capital expenditures.

Under the present method of accounting, the Applicant's unit of property for the building structure consists the original purchase/construction costs and any subsequent improvements.

Under the present method of accounting, the Applicant has deducted materials and supplies that do not fall under the category of inventory in the year paid.

Page 3, Part II, Line 12c, Proposed Method of Accounting

Under the proposed method of accounting, the Applicant will change the method of accounting to deduct amounts paid or incurred for repair and maintenance in accordance with Reg. section 1.162-4. Reg. section 1.162-4(a) provides that a taxpayer may deduct amounts paid for repairs and maintenance to tangible property if the amounts paid are not otherwise required to be capitalized.

Under the proposed method of accounting, the Applicant will change the method of accounting to deduct amounts paid or incurred for routine maintenance in accordance with Reg. section 1.162-4. Reg. section 1.162-4(i) provides that amounts paid for routine maintenance to tangible property is deemed not to improve the unit of property.

Under the proposed method of accounting, the Applicant will change the method of accounting to capitalize amounts paid or incurred for repair and maintenance in accordance with Reg. section 1.263(a)-3. Reg. section 1.263(a)-3 provides that a taxpayer may capitalize amounts paid for repairs and maintenance to tangible property as amounts paid to improve property if expenditures are not otherwise required to be deducted.

Under the proposed method of accounting, the Applicant will change the unit of property for all real property to the building system components. For personal property the Applicant will change the unit of property determination based on functional interdependence and/or discrete and major functions unless industry specific guidance is published.
