a A person who directly or indirectly controls, either alone or together with persons described in (b) and (c) below, the governing body of a supported organization?	11a
b A family member of a person described in (a) above?	11b
c A 35% controlled entity of a person described in (a) or (b) above? If "Yes" to a, b, or c, provide detail in Part VI.	11c

Part IV

Supporting Organizations (continued)

Section B. Type I Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year.
2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Were a majority of the organization's directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization's supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (1) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (2) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (3) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization(s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
3 By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.

PART III, LINE 1	our vision In the 21st century, the YWCA Greater Baton Rouge will be the premier service movement for women in a community where women are respected leaders in all sectors of society, diversity is embraced, and all people belong to one race-the human race our historyThe YWCA of Greater Baton Rouge is a non-profit organization affiliated with the YWCA of the USA, which has a rich 150+year legacy of social justice The YWCA was first organized in 1943 to serve only white women and girls Local black women formed the Maggie Nance Ringgo Unit of the YWCA eleven years later The two co-existed until 1965, when national convention action correctly mandated all YWCAs in the country to desegregate White members of the local YWCA voted to disaffiliate from the YWCA of the USA (at a meeting where the Unit members were not allowed to vote), seceded from the national organization, changed the organizational name to the Young Womens Christian Organization (YWCO) and retained the YWCAs assets, including its building Eventually the YWCO was dissolved In 1967, the YWCA Greater Baton Rouge reorganized as an integrated association, was re-chartered in 1968 by the YWCA of the USA, and began its early and renowned racial justice programming Today the YWCA continues to work for the elimination of racism and the empowerment of women Key programs include YWCA Early Head Start high quality child care and education for families with low-incomes and children 0-3 as well as pregnant women with low-incomes, YWCA Health Services YWCA ENCOREplus breast cancer outreach and education, YWCA RISE HIV/AIDS education, outreach and testing and YWCA SIHLE teen pregnancy and STD prevention programming, and YWCA Racial and Social Justice our structureThe YWCA of Greater Baton Rouge is a private, non-profit organization affiliated with the YWCA of the USA as a member The organization provides programs and services connected to its Mission, and is supported by federal, state and local governmental grants, private foundations, Capital Area United Way, private donations from individuals and fundraising activities The total (2013) budget is $2,815,301, with high dependence on one source federal funding of Early Head Start at $2,144,952 (which requires a 25% non-federal match of $536,238)our programsYWCA Early Head StartFast Facts Over the past fifteen years Early Head Start has reversed the national high school graduation rate of adolescent parents The average graduation rate of participants in the program is 82% compared to the national rate of 30%-40% The YWCA Early Head Start Program provides comprehensive educational and health services for pregnant adolescents, children of adolescent parents, young children with disabilities, and children living in poverty and their families The program is first and foremost a child development program that enhances the development of children during their formative early childhood years with a goal of promoting school readiness and effective parenting (NOTE All children served are 0-3, and pregnant women) YWCA ENCOREplusFast Fact Although the breast cancer diagnosis rate in our State is consistent with the rest of the USA, the survival rate in Louisiana is 50th in the country YWCA ENCOREplus offers grassroots breast health education and awareness to uninsured and underserved women The program is designed to reduce deaths due to breast cancer among high-risk, medically underserved women The program focuses on African American women aged 40 and older because of their disproportionately high death rate from these cancers, chiefly due to late detection, however, women of all races and ethnicities are served YWCA RISEFast Fact According to 2010 CDC statistics Baton Rouge, Louisiana, ranked #2 in the nation in estimated new AIDS case rates per capita RISE (Reaching Impacting Strengthening & Empowering Women in the Fight Against HIV) educates citizens on appropriate lifestyle choices and sexual responsibility through community outreach, provides free HIV testing, saves lives through prevention and early detection, provides free supplies, and provides free pre-and post counseling to everyone we test YWCA SIHLEFast Fact Louisiana ranked 6th in the nation for the highest teen birth rate in 2011, as compared to 2008 when it ranked 8th SIHLE (Sisters Informing Healing Living & Empowering) focuses on preventing the spread of HIV, other STDs and decreasing new teen pregnancies by providing a safe environment for group discussions, behavioral skills practice and role plays about sensitive topics such as abstinence, safe sex options, partner communication, media and social influence, gender and ethnic pride, etc YWCA Racial and Social JusticeFast Fact The Pew Research Center's analysis of 2009 government data says the median wealth of white households is 20 times that of black households and 18 times that of Hispanic households YWCA Racial and Social Justice programming continues the organizations rich legacy of combating racism in our community by offering programming and collaborating with other organizations in their activities
