Briefly describe the organization's mission

Episcopal Relief & Development is a compassionate response of The Episcopal Church to human suffering in the world. Hearing God's call to seek and serve Christ in all persons and to respect the dignity of every human being, Episcopal Relief & Development engages the generosity of Episcopalians and others to heal a hurting world. Working with Anglican and ecumenical partners, Episcopal Relief & Development implements programs in primary health care, emergency relief and rebuilding and food security. Episcopal Relief & Development faithfully administers the funds that are received from the Church and raised from other sources. - Mission and Mandate

(Code) (Expenses $ 6,295,282 including grants of $ 3,556,280) (Revenue $)

Primary Health Care Episcopal Relief & Development and its partners promote health and fight disease by empowering people and communities to protect themselves from common illnesses and increase overall health and well-being. Working with local churches and other partners, the organization's integrated programs prevent disease by caring for vulnerable mothers and their children, promoting nutrition and immunizations and increasing access to health care, clean water and adequate sanitation and hygiene. In partnership with health workers and clinics, Episcopal Relief & Development's programs target diseases such as malaria, diarrhea, pneumonia and HIV/AIDS. In 2014, partners in 24 countries implemented primary health care programs - training health workers to educate communities about disease prevention and providing medication and immunizations through local and mobile clinics - offering maternal and child health programs and caring for children orphaned by HIV/AIDS - preventing diseases such as malaria through education and intervention in 14 countries through the NetsforLife malaria prevention program partnership. learn more at <http://www.episcopalrelief.org/what-we-do/our-programs/malaria> - building clean water and sanitation systems, including wells and latrines. learn more at <http://www.episcopalrelief.org/what-we-do/promoting-health>

(Code) (Expenses $ 5,245,377 including grants of $ 3,214,068) (Revenue $)

Emergency Relief and Rebuilding Episcopal Relief & Development and its partners in the United States and worldwide respond to disasters and help rebuild communities. With technical and financial support, the organization's partners deliver critical basics such as food, water and other necessities after emergencies, and remain present in communities long after the crisis is over to help heal, recover and rebuild. Disaster risk reduction and preparedness efforts help individuals and congregations prepare in advance of crises to reduce impact on vulnerable and underserved communities. In 2014, partners in 19 countries (including the United States) implemented emergency relief and rebuilding programs - training communities to prepare for and respond to disasters - strengthening community infrastructure to reduce disaster risk and improve resilience after disasters - responding quickly with critical assistance - rebuilding/repairing homes, schools, clinics, and other civic buildings - promoting social and economic rehabilitation through small business development and income-generating opportunities - offering trauma counseling and psychosocial services for survivors. learn more at <http://www.episcopalrelief.org/what-we-do/responding-to-disasters>

4c

(Code) (Expenses $ 4,707,341 including grants of $ 3,441,251) (Revenue $)

Food Security Episcopal Relief & Development and its partners alleviate hunger and improve food supply by helping people leverage their own unique resources, knowledge and skills to create long-term agricultural strategies that enable families to feed themselves while protecting the environment. Locally developed programs address the specific context of hunger and have a wider impact on the health and economic well-being of the community. In addition, Episcopal Relief & Development and its partners create economic opportunities and strengthen communities by empowering individuals and families to expand enterprises and increase their income. In 2014, partners in 22 countries implemented food security programs - providing tools, seeds, and other resources to support family farms - developing and sharing sustainable and context-appropriate farming techniques - distributing livestock to families, boosting their ability to cultivate their land and generate income from selling eggs and dairy - supporting sustainable agriculture and smallholder cooperatives - providing vocational training and micro-finance opportunities for people in 28 countries to start small businesses and expand sources of income. learn more at <http://www.episcopalrelief.org/what-we-do/creating-economic-opportunities> - learn more at <http://www.episcopalrelief.org/what-we-do/alleviating-hunger>

a A person who directly or indirectly controls, either alone or together with persons described in (b) and (c) below, the governing body of a supported organization?	11a
b A family member of a person described in (a) above?	11b
c A 35% controlled entity of a person described in (a) or (b) above? If "Yes" to a, b, or c, provide detail in Part VI.	11c

Part IV

Section B. Type I Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year.
2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Were a majority of the organization's directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization's supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (1) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (2) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (3) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization(s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
3 By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.

Supplemental Information

Provide the descriptions required for Part II, lines 3, 5, and 9, Part III, lines 1a and 4, Part IV, lines 1b and 2b, Part V, line 4, Part X, line 2, Part XI, lines 2d and 4b, and Part XII, lines 2d and 4b. Also complete this part to provide any additional information.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part V, Line 4	The organization's endowment consists of two trust funds, each of which have both donor and board-designated funds. The income from these funds is used to support the administrative and program activities of Episcopal Relief & Development.
Schedule D, Part X	The Organization follows guidance that clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return, including issues relating to financial statement recognition and measurement. This standard provides that the tax effects from an uncertain tax position can be recognized in the financial statements only if the position is "more-likely-than-not" to be sustained if the position were to be challenged by a taxing authority. The standard also provides guidance on measurement, classification, interest and penalties, and disclosure and had no impact on the accompanying financial statements. The tax years 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014 are still open to audit for both federal and state purposes. The organization has processes presently in place to ensure the maintenance of its tax-exempt status, to identify and report unrelated income, to determine its filing and tax obligations in jurisdictions for which it has nexus, and to identify and evaluate other matters that may be considered tax positions.
Other changes in Revenue	Change in beneficial interest in outside trusts held by others ($16,884)
