P 6 Part VI, Section A, Line 11. 990 Review Process. The Executive Director (ED) and external accountant are responsible for preparing the schedules and information to complete the Form 990 filing. Both review initial drafts and address questions and comments with the preparer. The Board Treasurer has oversight of this process. When the ED and external accountant are satisfied with the drafts, the ED provides copies to the full Board for their review. Comments, if any, are addressed and resolved. The ED then files the completed return with the Internal Revenue Service.

P 6 Part VI, Section B, Line 12C. Conflict of Interest Disclosure: The agency maintains a board resource manual with all policies and procedures. Each Board Member has access to the manual and the orientation to fully explain the roles and responsibilities of each member. The Executive Director and Board Executive committee work together to ensure compliance with the conflict of interest policy. The agency's Executive committee works to ensure compliance with Board Policies. The Board completes a Conflict of Interest Disclosure annually.

P 6. Part VI, Section B, Line 15. Compensation Review. The agency executive director and support staff work together to secure non profit salary survey information from a variety of non profit sources. This information along with other non profit sector trends and comparable agency data is used to develop a salary range for executive, management and staff salaries. This information, along with the agency's salary history form the basis for compensation arrangements and updates.

P 6. Part VI, Section C, Line 19. The agency complies with all required filings and disclosures in a timely manner. The agency also makes available its public documents to any interested party, who makes a written request. These requests are generally answered within ten business days of receipt. The agency does not publish its internal financial documents
