Part IV Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2, Part III, column (b), and any other additional information.

All organizational grants require a detailed explanation of how the funds will be used. All organizations receiving grants are well established, well run and efficient.

The majority of the organizational grants are renewals to organizations who have received grants from us in the past. In awarding the organizational grants, we ascertain that the funds will be used effectively to meet the specific charitable goals of this trust. For individual grants, we ascertain that the beneficiary or their family is in need, and that the expenses are documented. These payments are always paid directly to the provider, never to the individual/beneficiary.
