Part IV

Section B. Type I Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year.
2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Were a majority of the organization's directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization's supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (1) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (2) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (3) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization(s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
3 By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b Form 990 Review Process	The Form 990 is prepared by an independent certified public accounting firm. After the Form 990 is prepared, a draft of Form 990 is provided to a designated member of the finance committee (the "Tax Coordinator") for review. The Tax Coordinator reports to the CPA firm if there are any corrections that should be made to the Form 990 and after the Tax Coordinator and the CPA firm determines the Form 990 is correct, the CPA firm produces copies of the Form 990 and the copies are circulated to each member of the governing body for review and comments. Each member of the governing body is instructed to submit questions or comments to the finance committee or to the CPA firm. Each member of the governing body is instructed to inform a member of the finance committee that he or she has reviewed the Form 990 and all questions and comments, if any, have been addressed. Once all questions and comments from the governing body have been resolved, the Form 990 is presented to the president of the Organization for signature and filing with the Internal Revenue Service.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a Compensation Review & Approval Process - CEO, Top Management	The Compensation Committee is a standing committee of the board. It shall assist the board in fulfilling its responsibility to oversee the compensation and benefits of the organization's executives. The committee will be appointed by, and shall serve at the discretion of the board. It will consist of not fewer than two members of the board, with the exact number being determined by the board. Unless a committee chair is designated by the board, the committee may designate a chair. The committee shall be comprised of independent board members. No member may serve on the committee if they have a bias regarding the compensation process or its outcome. The assessment of board member independence will include noneconomic factors, such as close personal relationships between potential board members and senior management, and donor/donee relationships. The committee shall establish a schedule of meetings but will meet at least annually. The chair of the committee shall be responsible for establishing the agendas for meetings of the committee. An agenda, together with materials relating to the subject matter of each meeting, shall be sent to members of the committee for each meeting. Minutes for all meetings of the committee shall be prepared to document the committee's discharge of its responsibilities. The minutes shall be circulated in draft form to committee members to ensure an accurate final record, shall be approved at a subsequent meeting of the committee and shall be distributed to the board. The committee shall Recommend the compensation of the organization's executive (or executive officers) to the board, Oversee the development and administration of the executive compensation and benefits program, Make regular reports to the board about the committee's activities, Make any recommendations to the board relating to proposed changes in the committee's charter.
