Grantmaker's Description of How Grants are Used	The National Fencing Foundation has policies and procedures in place to make and monitor grants. Grants can be awarded on both a need and performance basis for individuals. Generally, grants are given for short practical periods and then must be renewed. Specifically, individual grants (for coaching fees) are attached to specific competitions in the near future, as this is also a requirement by the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA). Grants to fencers requires coach recommendations. When grants are renewed, coaches are contacted to ensure that the individual is still qualified for the grant. Also, grants over material amounts require the approval of the Board of Directors, not just a senior officer.
