Part I, Line 2 - Procedures for Monitoring Use of Grants Funds in U.S.

Financial assistance contributions are received primarily from unions and are used to help their members and/or contribute to the annual holiday party. Contributions received are posted to the general ledger by union and expenses paid are charged against receipts for same unions. Working Partnerships has a separate QB file to track these revenues and expenses and all transactions are integrated into the general Working Partnerships' QB file on a monthly basis. We have signed agreements from all the participating unions that the funds received are for general support, thus we do not count this revenue as restricted and can use it for general operating expenses. We choose, however, to keep it for hardship assistance for the unions' members.
