Description of Achievements for 2014

A primary objective of ROP Resource Ministries is leading participants toward greater levels of self-sufficiency. In 2014, more than 4,000 unduplicated individuals were served through Resource Ministries ongoing programs and another 3,300 people were served through several outreach events. The following provides summary results and, where appropriate, commentary on the status and future plans for Resource Ministries' existing programs:

- Food Bank: 884 different households received food during the year, representing at least 3,358 different adults and children. On a weekly basis the food bank served an average of 110 households compared to 95 households per week in 2013. Plans for the Food Bank include the incorporation of mentoring for participants seeking to take next steps toward greater self-sufficiency. Training has been developed but implementation of mentoring is dependent on mobilizing a core of volunteers which is proving to be a significant challenge.
- Clothing Bank: Almost 15 tons of clothing was distributed to more than 1,000 families through 8 clothing distributions. As mentioned above, mid-year ROP made a strategic shift to distribute clothing through local churches rather than at ROP's building in order to build relationships with these churches and reach more people.
- GED Classes: 72 different students attended at some point during the year. Some came regularly. Others only attended a few times or sporadically. The monthly average was 19 different students. These numbers are down significantly from the previous year, but the biggest drop was in tests taken - 1 in 2014 vs. 32 tests taken in 2013. These declines dramatically reflect the impact of the changes in Colorado's GED program implemented in 2014. Many say it is now much more difficult to get a GED than to get a high school diploma. These changes are causing us to rethink and expand the scope of the program to better meet the needs of our community. We will continue to tutor students who want to pursue the GED, but we also plan to expand the program to include computer, English language and job application skills. We have informally provided this kind of training to students who needed it in the past, but going forward we plan to promote it and incorporate it more formally into the program. We are also looking at what it would take to offer these education/job readiness classes in the evenings rather than just the afternoon in order to make the program more available to those already working day jobs.
- ESL Classes: 76 students attended ROP's English as a Second Language (ESL) classes in 2014. Six of the students obtained jobs and 27 advanced to higher levels. These may not seem like a huge numbers, but student literacy levels are often in the preliterate range, and there is no commonality between their languages and English. Some will take a very long time to achieve advancement. Many of the students are mothers and seniors, who do not plan to work jobs outside of the home. Like some of the GED students, many ESL students also come in order to find connections and encouragement that they do not find elsewhere in their lives.
- Outreach: ROP's outreach events served 3,287 people in 2014, principally through its Thanksgiving Outreach and a Back to School Outreach (BTSO) where 1100 backpacks filled with school supplies were distributed to kids. However, 2014 saw some further rethinking in ROP's Outreach activities. Large outreach events can be quite expensive. They do very little in terms of building relationships with people. And they tend to be one-way giving events, i.e. events where people just receive stuff for free with no investment on the part of the participant. As a result, we decided to discontinue the large Back to School Outreach in favor of promoting one-on-one ongoing partnerships between urban and suburban churches which might include smaller scale BTSOs among several activities by which the two churches would partner together. (See Suburban-Urban Church Partnerships above)

- Street Ministry: Our team served almost 3100 hot meals to the homeless and near homeless over the course of 2014. Regardless of the weather, people knew they could not only count on some hot food (and when available, warm clothing and personal hygiene items), but they would also encounter a listening ear and a caring heart from our Street ministry team.
- Refugee Resources: The refugee community has a unique sets of needs, beginning with language and cultural barriers. ROP provides them with English as a Second Language (ESL) classes, where we are inspired by their hard work as they progress, albeit often at a slow rate. Many of these people did not have a chance at an education in their own countries and endured unimaginable persecution before arriving in Aurora. During 2014, more than 80 percent of our ESL students were refugees. The majority of our refugee students are from Burma, with Nepal being a close second. We also have students from Iraq, Ethiopia, and Latin American countries. Refugees also make of 60% of those served by ROP's clothing bank and 25% of the people served by ROP's food bank. The assistance these refugees need is too great for any one agency to provide, so in 2013, ROP created a new staff position, Director of Refugee Resources and Outreach, and began a targeted effort to reach out to our refugee neighbors and to collaborate with others who are working with the same population in Aurora. In 2014, we again partnered closely with Denver Rescue Mission (DRM) in two separate outreach events to the refugees in our community. In 2014, ROP was also invited to participate in an advisory capacity in Aurora's newly formed Refugee & Immigration Task Force which was formed to address the issues of the growing refugee community within the City of Aurora and especially within the part of Aurora where ROP is located. Looking forward, we expect to continue partnering with DRM and several other organizations in meeting the needs of our growing refugee population.

A primary objective of ROP Youth Ministries is keeping kids in school and teaching them to make good decisions, in order that they become self-supporting and contributing members of their families and communities. During 2014, Youth Ministries served 251 different kids. The following provides summary results and, where appropriate, commentary on the status and future plans for each of Youth Ministries' existing programs:

- ROP's evening group mentoring programs for elementary, middle and high school students (Spark, Ignite and Impact) ministered to 65 different kids during the course of 2104 and an average of 50 kids per month. A big blessing for Youth Ministry in 2014 was bringing a new Teen Ministry Director on staff, but an ongoing challenge remains the absence of a Children's Ministry Director. In the mean time, ROP has been blessed by three high-capacity volunteers who have assumed leadership of the Children's program for the 2013-14 academic year, but this arrangement appears unlikely to continue beyond May 2015.
- After-School Tutoring: 28 different students received more than 400 hours of tutoring. Most of the students in ROP's after-school tutoring program are Karen refugees from Burma. During 2014, ROP leadership met with the Principals of the elementary school (Crawford) and middle/high school (West) where most of our kids attend. Our desire is to build relationships with the schools that would allow us to better collaborate in meeting the needs of our kids. The schools encouraged us to place primary attention on the language skills of our refugee kids as the resources available to kids that speak Nepali or Burmese are much more limited than the resources available to Spanish speakers.

- Summer Camp: During the summer of 2014 ROP provided 5 weeks of Day Camp to 158 different kids, most of whom attended multiple weeks if not every week. Through our partnership with Eagle Lake (The Navigators), sixteen of these kids were also able to enjoy a week of camp in the mountains at very low cost. In addition to giving the kids in our community a safe place to have some fun during the summer, the Day Camps provide a great opportunity to develop leadership skills in our middle and high school students who earn the opportunity serve in a variety of capacities that fit their abilities and level of maturity.
- Christmas Store: 2014 was the first year that ROP conducted its own "Christmas Store". We like this model for a Christmas outreach much better than the previous give-away approach because it allows parents to shop for and purchase presents for their kids, albeit at deeply discounted prices. This year's store provided presents for 150 kids. It was not technically a Youth Ministries program, but was administered by Youth Ministries for the benefit of all ROP families.
