Friends created and opened Waterfront Space in 2014 to invite the public in to learn about the waterfront project during regular open hours and for special events presented free and open to the public. Friends curated educational exhibits telling the story of past, present and future of the central shoreline with detailed displays explaining the future park which the public can tour with trained guides. Waterfront Space is home base for the waterfront project and also serves as Friends headquarters and an event space to engage the public on the project. Friends partnered with the City to develop the Space for public outreach and we work closely together to gather public input and bring diverse communities into the creation of the future waterfront and its long term stewardship.
