990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Every employee is required to fill out a conflict of interest disclosure letter annually, describing any potential conflicts. These forms are reviewed by the Director of Finance. In some cases the CEO/President will be made aware of any potential conflicts. We review with the employees at periodic times throughout the year what might be a possible conflict, and require employees to update their form if they feel anything has changed with regards to possible conflicts.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The Director of Finance uses different third-party information to ensure that compensation is in line with other religious organizations or para-church ministries. Some of these providers are local churches or ministries that work in a similar field. Information from the ECFA has also been utilized, which shows compensation levels for numerous positions for different regions of the country. Compensation levels are then approved by a compensation committee made up of at least 3 members of the international board. The compensation committee is empowered by the full board to determine officer compensation. Once approved, decisions are documented and signed by the committee members. This process occurs on an annual basis.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	We communicate the availability of these documents periodically throughout the year in mailings and communications to our donors, for example, in our annual report. We also have posted our tax return and financial statements with ECFA and they are available electronically to anyone who would like to review them. If we receive any written or email request for documents, we will mail them to the person requesting the information.
Form 990 Part XII, Line 12c	The organization has a committee that assumes responsibility for oversight of the audit of its financial statements and selection of an independent accountant. This process has not changed since the prior year.
