Part I. Line 6. There are no gaming activities.

Line 7c. Represents the sale of challenge coins with inventory still left over. The initial cost of goods (Line 7b) was claimed in 2012.

Line 10. This is the total cost of Grants, conferences, airfare, and hotel as described in Part III. The total also includes grants to "members in need" (a death in the family or stricken by cancer) as well as a higher education bridge scholarship awarded to the daughter of a firefighter.

Line 16. This is the amount donated to Roadrunner food bank on behalf of our members and new banners under office expenses and supplies

Part II. Line 24. This is a checking account, it is included in the total assets on Line 25 and 27.

Line 26. There no liabilities.

Part III. The New Mexico Firefighters Association benefits Firefighters and their families through, education, training, attending conferences, new legislation, and general support in individual cases of need. The Association maintains separate savings funds within the bank account (included in totals in Part II) for disasters, scholarships, and a registered political action fund. The Association has been successful enacting legislation for a September 11th day of remembrance, presumptive causation, and a State line-of-duty death benefit. (This year we were able to increase the State benefit for a Line of Duty Death) As well as pass legislation for mandatory background checks, support statewide firefighter programs, especially rural departments, with various assistance and training. We encourage health and safety programs and legislation, and offer legal assistance when needed. The training provided is both in and out of state thru conferences and specific leadership courses. There are currently 1300 professional firefighters in New Mexico with 14 affiliates.

Line 31. This grant was to attend the Affiliate Leadership Training Summit in Orlando, FL. Where our member attended the Leadership training 5 part series, and pension reform session; legal and legislative issues.

Part V. No lobbying was performed, no payments were received from indoor tanning services, no significant changes were made to the organizations governing documents.
