4a

(Code) (Expenses $ 1,201,291 including grants of $ 460,706) (Revenue $)

In 2014, Seacology approved 16 new projects on islands around the world Seacology grants go to communities that are working to protect their manne or terrestrial environments and need some kind of community benefit, such as a school or community center Seacology's 2014 projects funded a variety of community benefits, including bird watching platforms and fencing for a South American nature reserve, freshwater storage and distribution systems in Micronesia and Africa, a womens craft center in India, a youth development and education center, community halls on Pacific Islands, a community center in Bali, mangrove nurseries in Grenada and Sri Lanka, a ranger dormitory in the Bahamas, village-wide solar lighting systems in the Indonesia and the Philippines, and a variety of improvements to existing structures We also continued to finance active projects approved in prior years, and monitored ongoing and completed projects and conservation areas

4b

(Code) (Expenses $ 38,171 including grants of $ 10,000) (Revenue $)

The annual Seacology Prize recognizes heroic achievement by people who seldom receive any publicity indigenous leaders who may risk their own lives to protect their island's ecosystems and culture In 2014, the prize went to Ali Shaibu Shekue, recognized throughout Kenya for his knowledge of artisanal fisheries Over his many years as a fisherman, he saw the loss of traditional fisheries management practices lead to a drastic decline in fish, people dispossessed from their fishing grounds, habitat destruction, and increased illegal fishing Rather than remain silent, he began working to mobilize local fishing communities Shekues oratory skills and unmatched knowledge of local fisheries give him unique credibility with the communities, and in 2002 the first community-managed marine protected area in Mkokoni, Kiunga was created because of his efforts He has since been appointed to various positions including Chairman of the Kiweni Project Implementation Committee, which is in charge of a Seacology-funded community marine protected area He also edits and publishes Mwambao, a quarterly newsletter, and has begun a project to document and encourage traditional fishing practices

b A family member of a person described in (a) above?	11b
c A 35% controlled entity of a person described in (a) or (b) above? If "Yes" to a, b, or c, provide detail in Part VI.	11c

Part IV

Section B. Type I Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year.
2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Were a majority of the organization's directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization's supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (1) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (2) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (3) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization(s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
3 By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.

Part V, Line 4 Intended uses of the endowment fund	Amounts earned on investment returns for the Quasi-endowment Fund are released from restriction and appropriated as earned Distributions from the Falealupo Endowment may be made from both investment principal and income. Amounts earned on investment returns for the Falealupo Endowment are released from restriction and appropriated as earned Distributions from the Falealupo Endowment are made on a case-by-case basis.
Part X FIN48 Footnote	ASC 740-10, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires the Corporation to report information regarding its exposure to various tax positions taken by the Corporation. The Corporation has determined whether any tax positions have met the recognition threshold and have measured the Corporation's exposure to those tax positions. Management believes that the Corporation has adequately addressed all relevant tax positions and that there are no unrecorded tax liabilities. Federal and state tax authorities generally have the right to examine and audit the previous three years of tax returns filed. Any interest or penalties assessed to the Corporation are recorded in operating expenses. No interest or penalties from federal or state tax authorities were recorded in the accompanying financial statements.

990 Schedule F, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2 - Grantmakers Explanation For Monitoring Use of Funds Outside US	The Organization's policy is to release funds in two or three disbursements. Authorization and agreement to fund each installment is contingent upon receipt and approval of a detailed interim report of the previous phase. These reports are required and are in addition to the required semi-annual project progress reports provided by the region's field representative. The interim report must include a detailed written description of implementation activities, a financial statement of expenditures, and photos of progress. If photographic evidence cannot be provided, the report is not considered finalized until after an independent site visit is made by a representative of the Organization.
