FORM 990, SCHEDULE H, PART VI - NEEDS ASSESSMENT	The most current needs assessment was done in 2013 by the main hospital of this Health System, Carson Tahoe Regional Healthcare. Needs are currently based on direct patient and physician feedback, survey responses and best practice information from other organizations. Information obtained from the previous needs assessment conducted in 2010 recognized the community's need for better access to healthcare. In response, Carson Tahoe has established cardiology clinics and clinics at WalMart in outlying areas. The healthcare system relies on Intellimed services to report information on out migration of services within the primary and secondary markets then utilizes information gathered to formulate needs assessment. Our HealthCheck laboratory services offers health screening at discounted rates as a result of feedback from physicians and community requests. We work with Nevada State Health and Human Services on identifying areas of need. CDC and Infection Control monitor industry trends and advises possible areas of focus.
