Check if the organization used Schedule O to respond to any question in this Part III

What is the organization's primary exempt purpose?
To promote and advance the field of chemistry, to promote cooperation between the local sections of the American Chemical Society located in the Great Lakes Region of the United States and to provide an organizational structure capable of executing projects of benefit to the local sections of the American Chemical Society

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. In a clear and concise manner, describe the services provided, the number of persons benefited, and other relevant information for each program title

28

Great Lakes Region of the American Chemical Society (the "Region") is a charitable, scientific, and educational organization. The Region is an affiliated region of the American Chemical Society (the "ACS"), which is a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt nonprofit organization headquartered in Washington, D C. The Region's membership consists of local affiliated sections of the ACS located in the Great Lakes region of United States. The Region's purpose is to (1) promote and advance the field of chemistry, (2) promote cooperation between the local sections of the ACS located in the Great Lakes region and to provide an organizational structure capable of executing projects of benefit to the local sections, and (3) ensure the ongoing success, continuity, and progress of scientific meetings based on chemistry and related areas of science in the Great Lakes region. The 2013 regional meeting, which was held in La Crosse, Wisconsin, was hosted by the La Crosse-Winona Section of the ACS. The Region provided financial support of $7,500 to the La Crosse-Winona Section for the 2013 regional meeting. The 2015 regional meeting, which is being held in Grand Rapids, Michigan, is being jointly held with the Central Region of the ACS. The 2015 regional meeting is being co-hosted by the Kalamazoo Section of the ACS and the Western Michigan Section of the ACS. The Region provided financial support of $5,000 to the Kalamazoo Section for the 2015 regional meeting. The Region also provides funds to the ACS host local section to assist in the funding of awards given out at the regional meetings. In 2013, the Region provided $500 to assist the funding of "The Division of Chemical Education Great Lakes Region Award for Excellence in High School Teaching," which is given to a high school chemistry teacher demonstrating teaching excellence in the classroom.

The Region's primary activity is overseeing the organization and operation of a regional meeting conducted every other year that is hosted by a local section of the ACS. The regional meeting is a technical meeting attended by individuals who are typically members of the ACS local sections in the Great Lakes region. The regional meeting generally consists of educational symposia and programs, publications and awards in the field of chemistry and related areas of science. The Region is responsible for selecting a local section to host the regional meeting. The Region provides general administrative and organizational guidance to the local section hosting the regional meeting. The Region provides financial assistance of no greater than $7,500 per regional meeting to the host local section to assist in defraying costs associated with the regional meeting. The local section hosting the regional meeting is responsible for any contractual arrangements and any losses incurred in conducting the regional meeting. If the revenue from the regional meeting exceeds the expenses, a portion of the proceeds from the regional meeting is paid to the Region by the host local section to help provide financial assistance for future regional meetings.
