Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these combined financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free of material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these combined financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the combined financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the combined financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of North America Indian Mission Inc. dba North America Indigenous Ministries as of December 31, 2014 and 2013 and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Other Matter

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the combined financial statements as a whole. The schedules (Schedules of Functional Expenses) on pages 12 and 13 are presented for purposes of additional analysis and are not a required part of the combined financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the combined financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the combined financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the combined financial statements or to the combined financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the combined financial statements as a whole.

North America Indian Mission Inc. dba North America Indigenous Ministries
Notes to Combined Financial Statements
For the years ended December 31, 2014 and 2013

Note 1 - Nature of Activities and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of Activities

North America Indian Mission Inc. dba North America Indigenous Ministries is located in Sumas, Washington and is a multicultural team that exists to glorify God through building the Church by making disciples among North American Indigenous peoples, to reach the world for Christ. The Organization was incorporated as a not-for-profit religious corporation under the laws of the State of Washington in 1949 as Marine Medical Mission, Inc. and changed its name to North America Indian Mission, Inc. in 1965. Substantially all revenue is from contributions.

The combined financial statements include the accounts of The Thetis Foundation. The Thetis Foundation is governed by a common board and exists for the benefit of the combined organization. All significant inter-organization transactions and accounts are eliminated. There are no external restrictions on distributions from the controlled organization to the reporting organization that would result in unavailability of net assets for use by the reporting organization.

Basis of Accounting

The Organization presents financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. This basis of accounting involves the application of accrual accounting; consequently, revenues and gains are recognized when earned, and expenses and losses are recognized when incurred.

Basis of Presentation

Generally accepted accounting principles require the Organization to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets: unrestricted net assets, temporarily restricted net assets, and permanently restricted net assets.

Unrestricted net assets - Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed stipulations.

Temporarily restricted net assets - Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that may or will be met either by actions of the Organization and/or the passage of time.

Permanently restricted net assets - Permanently restricted net assets must be maintained by the Organization in perpetuity, the income of which is expendable for operations. Permanently restricted net assets increase when the Organization receives contributions for which donor-imposed restrictions limiting the Organization's use of an asset for its economic benefits neither expire with the passage of time nor can be removed by the Organization meeting certain requirements. The Organization had no permanently restricted net assets at December 31, 2014 and 2013.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates. Significant estimates include useful lives of property and equipment, fair value of marketable securities, net realizable value of contributions receivable, and allocation of expenses to programs.

North America Indian Mission Inc. dba North America Indigenous Ministries
Notes to Combined Financial Statements
For the years ended December 31, 2014 and 2013

Cash

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, cash includes time deposits, money market accounts, certificates of deposit, and all highly liquid debt instruments with original maturities of three months or less that are not restricted by donors for capital or long term purposes.

Property, Equipment, and Depreciation

Property and equipment purchases are stated at cost. Donated assets are stated at fair market value at date of receipt. Donated services that enhance non-financial assets are capitalized at fair market value at the date the services are provided. Depreciation is provided by use of the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the related assets ranging from four to five years for equipment and vehicles and thirty to forty years for buildings. All acquisitions of property and equipment in excess of $1,000 and all expenditures for repairs, maintenance, renewals, and betterments that materially prolong the useful lives of assets are capitalized. Depreciation expense for the years ended December 31, 2014 and 2013 was $16,650 and $15,383, respectively.

Marketable Equity Securities

In accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, the Organization reports its investments at market value determined using published quotes as of the close of business. Unrealized gains and losses are included in the statement of activities as increases or decreases in unrestricted net assets unless the use of the assets received is limited by donor-imposed restrictions. Donor-restricted investment income is reported as an increase in temporarily restricted net assets or permanently restricted net assets, depending on the type of restriction. Gains or losses upon disposition of securities are based on the net proceeds and the adjusted stated amount of the securities sold, using the specific-identification method. At December 31, 2014 and 2013, unrestricted marketable securities were $911,035 and $1,202,414, respectively, and restricted marketable securities were $0 and $0, respectively.

Accounts Receivable and Allowance for Doubtful Accounts

The Organization records a receivable for costs advanced to mission personnel programs. An allowance for doubtful accounts is provided based on management's best estimate of probable losses inherent in the accounts receivable balance. Management primarily determines the allowance based upon review of specific accounts and historical loss experience. Uncollectible accounts are charged against the allowance when it is evident that the likelihood of collection is remote. Delinquency is determined based upon agreed terms.

Accrued Compensated Absences

Mission personnel are compensated based on designated support less expenses. Therefore, no amounts are accrued for vacation or sick pay.

Federal Income Tax

The Organization is exempt from federal income tax under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) except to the extent of unrelated business taxable income, if any.

North America Indian Mission Inc. dba North America Indigenous Ministries
Notes to Combined Financial Statements
For the years ended December 31, 2014 and 2013

Contributions Received

Contributions received are recorded as unrestricted, temporarily restricted, or permanently restricted support, depending on the existence and/or nature of any donor restrictions. Donor restricted contributions whose restrictions are met in the same reporting period are treated as unrestricted support. Gains, losses and other income earned on donor restricted assets are reported as unrestricted income unless donor restrictions exist to the contrary. Donations of long-lived assets, in the absence of donor-imposed use restrictions, are reported as unrestricted support.

All other donor-restricted support is reported as an increase in temporarily or permanently restricted net assets, depending on the nature of the restriction. When a restriction expires (that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished), temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the Statement of Activities as net assets released from restrictions.

Donated Services and Materials

The Organization recognizes donated services that create or enhance nonfinancial assets. Donated services that require specialized skills, are provided by individuals possessing those skills, and would typically need to be purchased if not provided by donation are also recognized.

Many people have contributed significant amounts of time to the activities of the Organization without compensation. The financial statements do not reflect the value of those contributed services because, although clearly substantial, the services do not meet the recognition criteria required by generally accepted accounting principles and no reliable basis exists for determining an appropriate value for those services. Donated materials are included in the financial statements at their estimated fair market values as of the date of their receipt.

Note 2 - Concentrations

Amounts on deposit with U.S. or Canadian banks may occasionally exceed the insurance limits of $250,000, for U.S. institutions and $100,000 for Canadian institutions, or be held in uninsured money market accounts. It is the Organization's policy to evaluate the financial condition of the institutions in which funds are on deposit on a regular basis to determine the extent of credit risk for deposits in excess of insurance limits. Bank balances on deposit in excess of insurance limits were $304,419 and $74,046 as of the years ended December 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively. In 2013 all of the funds were invested in fixed income insured certificates of deposit.

During the years ended December 31, 2014 and 2013, a small number of donors each made contributions in excess of $20,000 totaling approximately $60,000 and $130,000, respectively. A concentration is defined as any financial transaction or group of transactions or relationships with a contributor, vendor, or other party for which a financial impact would be recognized in the absence of the transactions or relationship for the year under consideration. No individual donors including churches or estates gave more than $35,000. No other concentrations were identified during the years ended December 31, 2014 and 2013.

Note 3 - Investments

Investments are presented in the combined financial statements at approximately the lower of cost or fair market value in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Investments are composed of the following:

	Unrestricted Net Assets
	2014	2013
As of December 31:
Money market and fixed income securities	$ 911,035	$ 1,202,414
Equities and limited partnership interests	0	0
	$ 911,035	$ 1,202,414

Note 4 - Fair Value Measurements

	Fair Value	Quoted Prices in Active Markets for Identical Assets (Level 1)	Significant Other Observable Inputs (Level 2)	Significant Unobservable Inputs (Level 3)	Realized and Unrealized Gain Recognized
Marketable securities	$ 911,035	$ 911,035	$ 0	$ 0	$ 1,806

Generally accepted accounting principles require disclosures about the methods used in determining the fair value of assets and liabilities that are valued on a recurring or nonrecurring basis. Marketable securities held at year end are valued using quoted market prices. Total realized and unrealized gains and losses recognized are included in the statement of activities in Interest, dividends and investment gain (loss). Currency exchange losses of approximately $109,000 and $73,000 were recognized in 2014 and 2013, on accounts held in Canadian funds. The organization had no assets or liabilities valued using level 3 inputs at December 31, 2014 and 2013.

Note 5 - Leases

Operating Leases

The Organization shares costs for leasing office space with a related organization (see Note 6). The costs of the lease include estimated charges for property taxes, utilities and insurance. Minimum future rental payments under non-cancelable operating leases having remaining terms in excess of one year as of December 31, 2014 for each of the next five years and in the aggregate are:

Years ending December 31,	Amount
2015	$ 12,459
2016	3,115
2017	0
2018	0
2019	0
Subsequent to fiscal 2019	0
Total minimum future rental payments	$ 15,574

Facility lease payments included in expense for the years ended December 31, 2014 and 2013 were $12,839 and $16,586, respectively. The lease term commenced April 1, 2011 and was renewed for an additional three year term starting in 2014 at a rate negotiated at the time of renewal. In the normal course of business, operating leases are generally renewed or replaced by other leases.

Note 6 - Related Party Transactions

North America Indian Mission of Canada (NAIM Canada) is a separate legal entity that works closely with the Organization and carries out similar operations in Canada. The purpose and mission of both entities is the same. The Boards of each entity are comprised of different individuals. However, operating results and financial position may be influenced by actions of the Boards of either entity. The amounts due to NAIM Canada are non-interest bearing and have no specific terms of repayment. The amount represents a timing difference related to payment of expenses or receipt of funds in advance of payment of funds raised for NAIM Canada staff. Total support provided to NAIM Canada was $1,274,938 and $1,248,869 in 2014 and 2013 respectively. The amounts are included in contributions and gifts in the Combined Statements of Activities and are allocated to programs, administration and fundraising in accordance with their use by NAIM Canada in the Combined Statements of Activities and the Combined Schedules of Functional Expenses.
