The Friends of Bellingham Public Library provide the Library with a financial report each year before the end of the fifth month after year end.

This report includes detailed information on the support they have provided during the year.

The Director of Bellingham Public Library attends board meetings of the Friends at which Library needs are discussed and which the Friends agree to support financially.

The funds and materials contributed by the Friends fill gaps in the book and other material collections. They also fund desired community educational programs not provided for in the city budget for the Library. Lack of these funds would cause a serious interruption to the proper functioning of the library
