Part V Supplemental Information

Provide the information required by Part I, line 2 (monitoring of funds); Part I, line 3, column (f) (accounting method; amounts of investments vs. expenditures per region); Part II, line 1 (accounting method); Part III (accounting method); and Part III, column (c) (estimated number of recipients), as applicable. Also complete this part to provide any additional information (see instructions).

Part I, Line 2 Recipients are elderly retirees who have no income other than a small government pension. The grant amount is principally to pay for medications, in some cases for rent assistance, and for other living expenses. The amount granted to each recipient is determined through annual visits and ongoing correspondence, including some telephone conversations to monitor each person's situation and needs. A special contribution in the amount of $100,000 was received, and a grant in that amount given, to fund a portion of the Latvian National Library.

Part I, Line 3 (f) and Part III: The accounting method is cash. Accordingly, cash grants are recorded only as recipients pick up their money orders at the disbursing bank in Riga, where this organization maintains a checking account for disbursing such grant payments. The sole purpose of this account is to receive funds and make distributions to grantees. The bank charges a small service charge against the organization's account for each disbursement. Grant disbursements are typically made up to four times per year to each recipient.
