Statement 1 - Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Sara's Sanctuary is a no-kill animal rescue that specializes in providing a lifetime home to "captive born wildlife." As a USDA licensed facility we are available to give refuge to animals that are confiscated by law enforcement agencies or surrendered by owners who are unable to handle them. The State of Washington prohibits the sale and ownership of exotic species into private ownership. We fully support these laws

Despite the best intentions of owners, exotic animals too often end up in dire situations that necessitate a safe haven like Sara's Sanctuary.

Providing community education to prevent the illegal breeding, abuse and neglect of animals is another important facet of our mission.

Working one-on-one with community members to solve animal welfare issues helps prevent more animals being in need of a sanctuary.

Hundreds of animals each year have directly benefited from our partnership with community, and hopefully many more indirectly.

Sara's Sanctuary is also proud to continue to have no paid staff or directors while continuing our high standards of care and individual attention to each animal. Being an all volunteer staff allows us to direct all donated funds to the medical care, husbandry and habitats of the animals we give refuge to.
