| Part IV, Line 2b | The Foundation holds funds for other 501(c)(3) organizations as agency funds. The funds are received under the terms of agreements with certain qualified not-for-profit organizations that specify themselves as the ultimate beneficiary for the funds. In accordance with accounting standards, these funds are classified as agency funds, even though the Foundation maintains legal variance power over these assets. |
| Part V, Line 4   | The Organization intends to use their endowment funds to provide scholarships and grants, as well as to assist with various other expenses.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |

| Part I, Line 2   | Within 30 days, the grantees must send a letter confirming receipt of funds. Grantees are required to provide the Foundation a full report on the use of grant funds as soon as they have been expended but no later than one year from the date that grant funding was released. In the event that conditions require the grantee to make a change in their project, it must be reported and approved by the appropriate Foundation staff. Any funds not spent for the specific purposes for which the grant was approved must be returned to the Foundation. Funds cannot be diverted to other uses without the Foundation's permission. |
