990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b Form 990 Review Process
Form 990, Part VI, Line 19 Other Organization Documents Publicly Available	Explanation Our policy is, upon written request, to make available our governing document s and financial statements for review at our current business address

Part III: 4a Statement of Program Services

Housing: My Father's House provides emergency shelter for up to 30 families in individual, self-contained units that include kitchenettes and private baths. We also have space for classes and childcare and a large meeting/chapel area. An additional "next-step" self-sufficiency program incorporates educational classes and support groups into apartment living at our 12-unit onsite apartment complex.

Food and Clothing: My Father's House provides donated food and clothing to residents through an onsite donation center and free family store.

Family Safety: My Father's House is a secure facility with a single entry point monitored during business hours. Shelter rules are designed to maximize safety and stability for all residents.

Child Safety: My Father's House has developed a comprehensive child safety policy to prevent child abuse and to ensure the safety of all children in our shelter and the adults who work with them.

Accountability, Education, Skill Building, and Relational Healing

Our program centers on structured expectations of residents, recovery groups, a comprehensive life skills education program, and focused skill building through case management. This aspect of the program is the nexus between theory and practice, where our philosophy and beliefs about how to teach, confront, counsel, and foster changes are implemented.

Structured Expectations: Every aspect of shelter life at My Father's House is deliberate and measured, in order to provide an orderly, clean living environment.

Recovery Groups: Some residents will need the additional support of recovery groups. My Father's House partners with groups in the community such as Anger Management, Alcoholics Anonymous, and victim support groups. Often, residents will be required to attend such a group during their stay at My Father's House.

Comprehensive Life Skills Program: The Life Skills and Rent Well® curricula foster change through education and training. The Life Skills program includes 7-8 hours of parent education and training, 18-20 hours of finance and budgeting, 18-20 hours of recovery class, and a series of one-hour courses on communication, job preparedness and interviewing, health and leisure, cooking, community resources, and other topics. We also offer an optional GED-completion program.

Focused Skill Building: Case management is a crucial point of contact with shelter residents. Case managers ensure progress through all aspects of the shelter program through weekly one-on-one encounters with individuals. The ultimate goal is to foster change through accountability and support, referrals, and advocacy. Case managers help their clients make their goals reality.
