Part IV

Section B. Type I Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year.
2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Were a majority of the organization's directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization's supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (1) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (2) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (3) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization(s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
3 By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	BayLegal is exempt from taxation under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) and California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 23701d. Generally accepted accounting principles provide accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an organization in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken by BayLegal in their federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. BayLegal's returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three and four years, respectively, after they are filed.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - Health Care & Economic Security, continued
Form 990, Part III, Line 4c - Housing & Homelessness Prevention, continued	BayLegal also provides legal services for vulnerable transition age youth including youth with disabilities, mental health issues, and/or involvement in the dependency or delinquency systems and provides consumer law assistance to help remove financial impediments to housing, income, healthcare, and economic self-sufficiency for low-income consumers. BayLegal's services impact clients in significant ways, including preventing homelessness, establishing safety and protection from abuse for domestic violence victims and their children, securing vital healthcare services to treat physical and mental health conditions, and securing income to provide for food, rent, and other necessities of life. BayLegal balances its direct individual services with systemic work to address root causes of issues harming low-income residents. Our systemic work is informed by BayLegal's work with individual clients, and it includes impact litigation, legislative and administrative advocacy, training, technical assistance, and policy development for agencies that administer housing, healthcare and benefits programs for the Bay Area's low-income residents.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	The Audit/Finance Committee of the Board of Directors reviews the Form 990 before it is filed.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Each member of the Board of Directors is provided a copy of the Conflict of Interest Policy on an annual basis.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The executive committee of the Board of Directors recommends the level of salary and other compensation of the Executive Director to the Board of Directors based on performance and comparability data. The Board of Directors make the final determination. The Executive Director has the authority to establish compensation of the key management staff, and relies on information from other legal services programs and salary surveys.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	Copies of the documents are provided upon request, some are also published in the annual report and on BayLegal's website.
