To provide sustained financing and support for biodiversity conservation, climate change adaptation and related sustainable development.
- 2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? ☐ Yes ☒ No
 If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O.
- 3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? ☐ Yes ☒ No
 If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.
- 4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a (Code:) (Expenses $ 627,551 including grants of $) (Revenue $)
Conservation Program: The Conservation Program consists of several ongoing funding programs supporting conservation and climate change adaptation projects in marine and terrestrial ecosystems in the Federated States of Micronesia (FSM), the Republic of the Marshall Islands (RMI), the Republic of Palau (ROP), the US Territory of Guam, and the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands (CNMI). Each of these programs is determined by terms agreed upon between MCT and its donors. In general, MCT funds projects through a call for proposals process, inviting organizations and groups to submit concept papers describing the work they plan to undertake in the targeted areas. MCT-funded projects address biodiversity and climate change adaptation issues in the FSM, RMI, ROP, Guam & CNMI, have a direct positive impact on the flora and/or fauna of the targeted ecosystems and related communities, show active involvement and commitment on the part of the communities involved, and show technical, financial and organizational coherence to ensure sustainability of the project. MCT Conservation Program staff monitor and evaluate the implementation of the projects, providing ongoing technical support and guidance, ensuring compliance to grant agreement terms and, working in close collaboration with the MCT Capacity-Building Program Staff, assist with assessing grantee needs.

4b (Code:) (Expenses $ 438,185 including grants of $) (Revenue $)
Capacity-Building Program: The MCT Capacity-Building Program currently supports the executive leadership and management of the region's NGOs and government agencies through the Micronesians in Island Conservation (MIC) network as well as their technical staff through the Pacific Islands Managed and Protected Areas Community (PIMPAC). MCT coordinates these two peer learning networks. The Capacity-Building Program also coordinates its activities with those of the Conservation Program, regularly monitoring project, providing on-the-spot assistance with project management as well as assessment of organizational needs in financial and project management. MIC is a peer learning initiative for emerging Micronesia conservation pioneers as well as established champions within both the NGO and government sectors. PIMPAC provides continuous opportunities for sharing of information, expertise, best practices and experience to develop and strengthen area-based management capacity throughout the Pacific Islands region. The MCT Capacity-Building program also administers internship and scholarship programs.

4c (Code:) (Expenses $ 387,980 including grants of $) (Revenue $)
Administration and Finance: The Administration and Finance staff provide administrative and financial management support to the Conservation and Capacity-Building Programs. MCT's financial management system is comprised of accounting records and a series of processes and procedures assigned to staff, Board and outside professionals. The goals of the MCT's systems are to ensure that financial data and transactions are properly entered into the accounting records and that financial reports necessary for management are prepared accurately and in a timely fashion. MCT's financial management policies and procedures also provide assurance that assets are used solely for the benefit of the organization, and not for personal or other gain, and that donated funds are used for the purposes which donors intended, as specified in their grant agreements. Internal controls help ensure operational efficiency and prevent the deliberate or misguided use of funds for unauthorized purposes. The Administration and Finance Program also includes the Human Resources functions of MCT. MCT was also accredited to serve as the National Implementing Agency of the Adaptation Fund for the Federated States of Micronesia, demonstrating that its administrative functions and financial and project management systems meet the highest international standards.
