Clinic Support Services -The Chapter currently supports affiliation with twelve ALS multi-disciplinary clinics in our 31 county service area in California including two ALS Association Certified Treatment and Research Centers located in San Francisco, a Satellite Clinic in Monterey serving patients on the Central Coast and Central Valley, and clinics at Cedars-Sinai Medical Center, Loma Linda University, Kaiser locations in southern California, UCSF Fresno, Stanford and at Veterans Administration locations This program provides improved health-care access and integration of specialty, primary care, affiliated health professionals and regional and community-based Chapter services This program provided service to 1,196 patients Service was available for 254 days

Form 990, Part III - Line 4c: Program Service Accomplishments (See the Instructions)

(Code)	(Expenses $ 70,821	including grants of $	(Revenue $)
Augmentative and Alternative Communication -This program provides comprehensive augmentative alternative communication (AAC) services and devices as people with ALS lose the ability to move and speak. People with ALS are provided with information and resources, in home or clinic evaluations, and equipment loans. These methods include low tech and high tech communication options including alphabet boards, laser pointers, iPad communication apps, and electronic eye gaze communication computer aids for daily living. Home visits may be made by an AAC specialist to provide training on new devices and evaluating on-going needs.
(Code)	(Expenses $ 49,064	including grants of $	(Revenue $)
Support Groups -Support groups are held monthly in Walnut Creek, Fresno, Santa Rosa, Turlock, Corte Madera, San Luis Obispo, San Jose, Watsonville, Long Beach, West Los Angeles, Santa Clarita Valley, Pasadena, Pomona, Ventura County, Riverside, Loma Linda, Bakersfield, Kauai and Oahu. Attendees included patients with ALS, their family and friends, caregivers and health care professionals. Support and education on a variety of topics are offered so that they are a valuable opportunity for people touched by ALS to network and learn from each other.

Equipment Loan Pool -Equipment loan closets supply loans of durable medical equipment including hospital beds, electric and manual wheelchairs, ramps and bathroom equipment free of charge Our chapter also funds the upkeep and maintenance of this equipment
(Code)	(Expenses $ 17,049	including grants of $ 6,520)	(Revenue $)
Patient Support and Care for Kids Funds -Caring for someone with ALS is expensive and the financial impact on a family is usually two-fold As the ALS progresses, the family will likely lose that person's income and others in the home may have to quit their job(s) to provide care In the later stages of the disease, people require power wheelchairs, hospital beds, respiratory equipment, and professional 24 hour care and costs can easily exceed $200,000 per year This situation leaves many children with a parent suffering from ALS without any resources to enjoy simple childhood experiences such as summer camp, music lessons or playing team sports The Golden West Chapter provides "scholarships" so that children may have these types of experiences Each scholarship is $300 and is limited to two scholarships per household In the event a family may have more than two children, the scholarship award may be split among all the children in order to assist the family with sending all the children to camp or another program In addition to the scholarships, the Chapter from time to time will pay for a care giver or special therapy if the family is unable to pay for it

Part IV

Section B. Type I Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year.
2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Were a majority of the organization's directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization's supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (1) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (2) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (3) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization(s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
3 By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	ALSA-GWC is exempt from taxation under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) and California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 23701d. Generally accepted accounting principles provide accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an organization in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken by ALSA-GWC in its federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. ALSA-GWC's returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three and four years, respectively, after they are filed.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2	Our grants and assistance program is called "Care for Kids" A family interested in receiving this benefit for their child/children must go through an application process and be awarded this grant Each grant is $300 and is limited to two per household In the event a family may have more than two children, the grant award may be split among all the children in order to assist the family with sending all the children to camp or another program If a parent is requesting a reimbursement for the expense already paid, proof of payment must be presented along with a receipt of payment In some instances, the ALS Association accounting department pays for the child's activity directly to the vendor upon receipt of an invoice with the appropriate approvals
