Each year we fund the work of a select group of exceptional child advocates we name as Award Honorees, and then provide them with essential support. First, we offer cash grants to sustain and expand their programs on the ground serving vulnerable children. Second, we bring the child advocates we honor to the United States where we promote their work and offer them visibility designed to attract other funders, potentially matching our grant support. We offer Honorees leadership training and educational opportunities to help ensure their success long term. We also connect them to our global network of child advocates and resources, furthering the sustainability and effectiveness of every program we recognize and support - all exclusively serving children.
