Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2	The Foundation issues grant vouchers to individuals who qualify for assistance through the Breast Cancer Assistance program. Each issued grant is tracked in a custom database. The grant recipient takes the voucher to the facility of choice, who then in turn bills us for the procedure. Once we receive a detailed bill for the service, payment is made directly to the facility up to the grant amount. Payment is only made for specific, approved CPT codes and only within the allotted time (60 days after grant is issued). We are able to track the number of grants awarded through our custom database, as well as monies paid out. If a grant has not been used within 90 days, it is released back into the program. When the foundation receives grant requests from organizations, the request is examined by the appropriate members of management to determine the amount requested, the purpose of the funds requested, the mission of the requesting organization to see if it fits with ABCF's mission, etc. This information is then presented to the Board of Directors for their approval. If the grant is approved, the foundation will request updates from the requesting organization regarding the grant funds.
