The patients who come in for a Paint It Pink mammogram have physician orders stating that the patient has no insurance and requesting the mammogram be billed to the Paint It Pink program. Vouchers are completed on each PIP patient and turned into the business office and to the PIP Coordinator. The business office and the PIP Coordinator keep records of how many of these mammograms are performed, and if there are any no-shows. Payment is then made directly to the hospital and to North West Imaging for the procedure and the reading of the mammogram on an annual basis.
