Central Appalachian NetworkThe Central Appalachian Network (CAN) is composed of six nonprofits that promote environmentally sustainable community development in Central Appalachia. CAN's goals include strengthening Central Appalachia's healthy food sector through value chain development, increasing the capacity of CAN and CAN partners, and engaging in policy change that supports sustainable development in Central Appalachia. In fiscal year 2015, CAN built local food value chains primarily through educational conferences, technical assistance, and small grants. MACED serves as fiscal sponsor for CAN. Energy Efficient EnterprisesMACED's Energy Efficient Enterprises project promotes energy efficiency by helping commercial enterprises save money through reduced energy costs, developing packages of information, financing and technical assistance that allow rural businesses and nonprofits to benefit from the opportunities. In fiscal year 2015 we facilitated 8 energy efficiency retrofits and 6 renewable energy installations. A total of $401,364 was invested in these 14 projects, resulting in an estimated $59,959 saved. ForestryMACED promotes and expands sustainable forest management by developing and implementing demonstrations and driving supportive policy that provides landowners and wood products businesses with new income opportunities. We help landowners and wood product companies take advantage of potential new value streams, such as the production of certified wood products or income from carbon sequestrations. At the close of fiscal year 2015, with low demand for our inventory of offsets, MACED has set a date of December 31, 2016 to close down the Appalachian Carbon Partnership, which facilitated the sale of carbon offsets. MACED remains committed to forestry as an important sector in Central Appalachia and is exploring other options for supporting and utilizing this important resource. General Community DevelopmentHistorically, MACED has provided administrative support services to and has maintained a joint employer relationship with several small nonprofits whose mission closely aligns with MACED's. Currently MACED provides these services to Kentucky Natural Lands Trust (KNLT). KNLT is a nonprofit conservation organization working to secure funds to protect natural lands and provide for their long-term stewardship.

Part IV

Section B. Type I Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year.
2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Were a majority of the organization's directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization's supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (1) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (2) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (3) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization(s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
3 By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.

Part V, Line 4	Prior years endowment funds were restricted for loan programs. Pursuant to current industry standards, these amounts were reclassified to temporarily restricted net assets in the prior year and not considered endowment.
Part X, Line 2	Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require management to evaluate tax positions taken by MACED and recognize a tax liability if MACED has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by various federal and state taxing authorities. Management has analyzed the tax positions taken by MACED, and has concluded that as of April 30, 2015 and 2014 there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability or disclosure in the accompanying financial statements.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The MACED bylaws include a conflict of interest policy that specifies conflicts of interest to be avoided. The board of directors may make exceptions to the policy in specific cases when the situation is fully disclosed to them. A provision of the conflict of interest policy is that that each director, officer and employee must receive, sign and return a copy of a summary of the conflict of interest policy. Annually, MACED board members and employees sign the summary anew, affirming that they have read and understand the policy. As part of the annual audit process, board members and other related parties fill out a related party questionnaire on which they report any interests and transactions that could give rise to conflicts of interest. Any conflicts of interest are disclosed as part of the audited financial statements.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	Annually, the MACED president is evaluated through a process guided by the board executive committee, composed of the board officers (chair, vice-chair, board treasurer and board secretary). The executive committee reports its findings to the board in closed session. After considering the committee's report, the board sets the president's compensation for the following year. The board takes into account compensation levels reported on Forms 990 for the CEOs of three to five comparable organizations as well as its knowledge of compensation of positions in the private and nonprofit sectors with comparable levels of responsibility, qualifications and achievement. The president does not participate in or vote on the decision on the president's compensation. The board's decision on compensation is recorded in minutes which are presented and approved at the following board meeting. This process last took place in December 2014. The president determines the compensation of other staff, including those who serve as corporate officers, following an annual performance review of each staff member. Along with considerations of equity among staff, the president takes into account compensation levels reported on Forms 990 for officer positions in three to five comparable organizations and his knowledge of compensation of positions in the private and nonprofit sectors with comparable levels of responsibility, qualifications and achievement. Every change in a staff salary is documented in a letter to the staff member.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 18	MACED, its subsidiary Ridgecrest Enterprises, and its sister nonprofit Appalachian Investment Corporation are audited each year. The corresponding audit report is on the consolidated financial statements of MACED and its affiliates. This report is available at www.maced.org . A separate audit on MACED's stand-alone financial statements is not issued.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	MACED's articles of incorporation, summary conflict of interest policy, and audited financial statements for the past five years are available on the MACED web site, www.maced.org .
Form 990, Part XII, Line 2c	The process has not changed from the prior year.
