| Schedule D, Part V, Line 4 Intended uses of endowment funds                                    | The primary objective of the investments for the endowment fund is to adequately support the University's current financial needs while preserving assets for future generations by providing long-term growth of income and principal.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Schedule D, Part X, Line 2 FIN 48 (ASC 740) footnote                                           | The University has been recognized by the Internal Revenue Service to be exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America prescribe recognition thresholds and measurement attributes for the financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. Tax benefits or liabilities will be recognized only if the tax position would "more-likely-than-not" be sustained in a tax examination, with a tax examination being presumed to occur. The amount recognized will be the largest amount of tax benefit or liability that is greater than 50% likely of being realized on examination. For tax positions not meeting the more-likely-than-not test, no tax benefit or liability will be recorded. Management has concluded that they are unaware of any tax benefits or liabilities to be recognized at April 30, 2015 and does not expect this to change in the next 12 months. The University would recognize interest and penalties related to uncertain tax positions in interest and income tax expense, respectively. The University has no amounts accrued for interest or penalties as of April 30, 2015 and 2014. The University is no longer subject to examination by taxing authorities for the years before April 30, 2012. |

| Schedule E, Part I, Line 3RACIALLYNONDISCRIMINATORY POLICY                                | The school publishes a notice of its racially nondiscriminatory policy in a newspaper of general circulation that serves all racial segments of the community. This publication is repeated at least once annually during the period of solicitation for students or during the school's registration period. The notice appears in a section of the newspaper and in a manner likely to be read by prospective students and their families. The school also uses broadcast media to publicize the policy. The announcements are made on stations at a time and of sufficient duration likely to be listened to by a substantial number of all racial segments of the general community the school serves. |
