01. Related organization compensation method (Part I, line 3)

The board established a compensation committee that will determine compensation for any persons in a position to exercise substantial influence over the affairs of the organization. The committee shall review one or more independent compensation surveys compiled by independent firms of the compensation paid to similarly situated individuals at institutions comparable to the organization as determined by the committee. Subject to performance evaluation, tenure, competitive needs and other factors discussed below, the committee shall establish base salaries for these individuals with referenced to the compensation paid to individuals holding comparable positions at comparable organizations at or below percentiles established by the committee as part of this compensation policy.

(e.g., if the committee determines that it will limit total compensation to that provided at the 75th percentile of comparable organizations, total compensation cannot exceed the amount established at such percentile, except in exceptional circumstances). In establishing incentive compensation, the committee shall communicate, directly or through a designee, the criteria on which incentive compensation will be paid to the covered individual sufficiently in advance of the end of the performance period to enable the covered individual to gauge his or her performance to the established criteria.
