Schedule D, Part III, Line 4	The College owns a collection of rare historical books dating back to the Civil War period and a set of doors of African origin. As part of the College's Exempt purpose, these items are made accessible for study by the students, faculty and staff.
SCHEDULE D, PART V, LINE 4	The intended uses of the College's endowment funds are to provide merit and need-based institutional financial aid to students, support academic programs, used to support plant and other educational purposes in accordance with the donor's intentions for the use of the funds.
SCHEDULE D, PART X, LINE 2	The College generally does not provide for income taxes since it is a tax-exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The college recognizes the benefit and establishes an accrual for uncertain tax position only when the position is "more likely than not" to be sustained in the event of examination by tax authorities. In evaluating whether a tax position has met the recognition threshold, the College must presume that the position will be examined by the appropriate taxing authority that has full knowledge of all relevant information. Tax positions deemed to meet the "more-likely than-not" threshold are recorded as a tax expense in the current year. The College has analyzed all open tax years, as defined by the statutes of limitations, for all major jurisdictions. The open tax years include the tax years ended May 31, 2011 through May 31, 2015. The College has no examination in progress. The College believes it has no significant uncertain tax positions.

Return Reference	Explanation
FORM 990, PART I, LINE 1 AND FORM 990, PART III, LINE 1	The College is a diverse learning community that strives for academic excellence in the Catholic and Jesuit tradition through comprehensive programs rooted in the liberal arts and sciences

Return Reference	Explanation
FORM 990, PART III, LINE 4a	Le Moyne College offers undergraduate and graduate, programs to approximately 3,049 full-time equivalents in nearly 47 areas of study. In addition to instruction offered in individual academic disciplines, all undergraduate students engage in a core curriculum which seeks to provide a foundation in the liberal arts and sciences and refine students' critical thinking and communication skills. Within the core curriculum students deepen their understanding of the diverse ways in which women and men throughout history have responded to enduring questions about meaning and order in the physical universe, in social and political processes, and in human experience. Each year, approximately 1% of Le Moyne students also take part in the College's study abroad program to enhance their educational experience, immerse themselves in a new way of life, and develop new perspectives on the people and cultures of other lands.

Return Reference	Explanation
FORM 990, PART III, LINE 4B	The College offers several programs through its public service function to assist socially- and economically-disadvantaged high school students in successfully completing their secondary education and providing an opportunity to enter some form of post-secondary education. These programs provide advisement and tutoring experiences, as well as outside enrichment activities. The College also operates an academic support center offering tutoring and study groups to assist students in their coursework, to provide individual consultations to improve students' learning strategies and study skills, to provide support and counseling for students on academic probation, and to administer accommodations for students with learning and other disabilities. In addition to the Academic Support Center, the Noreen Reale Falcone Library supports the educational goals of Le Moyne College through a process of continuous review and improvement of collections, instructional programs, technology, and information services. The Library houses over 220,000 books, 25,000 e-books, and 50,000 print and electronic periodical subscriptions among its vast collections. In addition to in-house collections, access is provided to over 125 databases offering a variety of research materials.

Return Reference	Explanation
FORM 990, PART III, LINE 4C	In keeping with the College's mission and Jesuit tradition of educating the whole person, Le Moyne offers a variety of student services to meet student needs outside the classroom. These services enhance the quality of student life and foster student social development. Activities and services revolve around key areas including housing and food service, personal counseling, health services, service learning, career planning and placement, and intercollegiate athletics. In particular, Campus Ministry offers a variety of retreat and alternative break programs to students looking to engage in spiritual growth and answer the call to be leaders in serving the needs of others, as well as opportunities to take part in liturgical ministries. The Office of Service Learning integrates community service opportunities with academic coursework in recognition of the social justice component of a Jesuit education. Finally, the Office of Career Services offers seminars and workshops on a variety of topics including resume writing, interviewing, and graduate-school planning, along with recruiting programs featuring employers from a variety of industries.

Return Reference	Explanation
FORM 990, PART VI, SECTION A, LINE 1A	The Board of Trustees has delegated broad authority to the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee has at least 10 members, consisting of the Board Officers, President, the chairs of the standing committees and at-large members, nominated by the Committee on Board Development and elected by the Board of Trustees. Members of the Executive Committee serve a one-year term and may be re-elected for an unlimited number of additional terms. The Executive Committee shall have authority to act for the Board between board meetings in circumstances that, in the judgment of the Executive Committee, qualify as "urgent conditions" such action should not be held until the next Board meeting, to manage continuing governance projects such as the presidential performance appraisal process, and to serve when appropriate as an ad hoc committee responsible for projects with defined goals and objectives that have start and end dates and specified outcomes. The Executive Committee shall keep the full board informed about the work of the Executive Committee and all actions taken while functioning as an interim governing body. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Executive Committee shall not have authority to act on matters that are, pursuant to the charter, these by-laws or applicable law, reserved to the full Board. The Board of Directors has delegated responsibility to the Compensation Committee to develop policies and practices that create the framework for recommendations that are dedicated to the fair and competitive compensation of the president and to exercise governance oversight to ensure that institutional compensation practices are grounded in fairness, market comparisons and accountability for performance.

Return Reference	Explanation
FORM 990, PART VI, SECTION B, LINE 11B	The Form 990 is prepared internally under the review of the Senior Vice President for Finance, Enrollment, and Administration, Secretary and Treasurer. The completed Form is distributed to the Finance Committee to review with management. The officer/employee compensation disclosures are reviewed by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Trustees. After the Finance Committee reviews the Form 990, the completed Form is distributed to the Board of Trustees prior to filing the Form with the IRS.

Return Reference	Explanation
FORM 990, PART VI, SECTION B, LINE 12C	Prior to the beginning of each academic year each vice president receives a list of administrative-level and executive employees in his or her division who received a conflict of interest form in the prior year. The vice presidents review the lists for their respective division for completeness and accuracy, making any adjustments necessary. Each identified employee receives a conflict of interest form to complete, as well as a copy of the conflict of interest policy. The employee listings and completed forms are kept in a confidential file in the Senior Vice President for Finance, Enrollment, and Administration, Secretary and Treasurer Office. Regular follow-up with employees occurs during the year to ensure all conflict of interest forms are received. In addition to administrative-level and executive employees, all Board of Trustees members receive a conflict of interest form to complete and a copy of the policy. Regular follow up occurs during the year to ensure all conflict of interest forms are received.

Return Reference	Explanation
FORM 990, PART VI, SECTION B, LINE 15A	The process for determining the compensation plan of the President meets the three requirements of the rebuttable presumption provisions under treasury regulation 53.4958-6. The compensation plan of the President is approved in advance by the Compensation Committee. Prior to making a compensation decision, the Compensation Committee obtained and relied upon appropriate data as to comparability. The comparability data is used to obtain an objective third party assessment of the total compensation plan to ensure the components and total plan is reasonable, customary and within market. This assessment is prepared annually on a rotating basis, internally and by an independent consultant, using comparative compensation data, including overall market factors determined to impact compensation. The Compensation Committee of the College's Board of Trustees adequately and timely documents the basis for setting the President's compensation plan concurrently with the making of the determination. The President's compensation is formally incorporated into his or her employment contract.
