Part III

Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

Briefly describe the organization's mission

Bryn Mawr College's mission is to provide a rigorous education and to encourage the pursuit of knowledge as preparation for life and work. Bryn Mawr teaches and values critical, creative and independent habits of thought and expression in an undergraduate liberal arts curriculum for women and in coeducational graduate programs in Arts and Sciences and Social Work and Social Research. Bryn Mawr seeks to sustain a community diverse in nature and democratic in practice, maintain its character as a small residential community which fosters close working relationships between faculty and students, emphasize learning through conversation and collaboration, primary reading, original research and experimentation. The academic and co-curricular experiences fostered by Bryn Mawr, both on campus and in the College's wider setting, encourage students to be responsible citizens who provide service to and leadership for an increasingly interdependent world.

Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ?

Yes

☒ No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O

Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services?

Yes

☒ No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a

(Code) (Expenses $ 125,832,798 including grants of $ 39,206,263) (Revenue $ 90,537,778)

Instruction. Bryn Mawr College's enrollment consists of approximately 1,400 full and part-time undergraduate students and 400 graduate and professional students. In FY2015, Bryn Mawr conferred 322 bachelor's degrees, 71 post-baccalaureate certificates, 124 master's degrees and 14 doctoral degrees. Seventy-five percent of full-time undergraduate students received some form of financial aid. Seventy-two percent received Bryn Mawr-source grant aid, of which the average amount was $28,150. In addition, during fiscal year 2015, the College provided over $5.0 million in subawards to other institutions for instruction in critical languages and mathematics.

4b

(Code) (Expenses $ 2,489,831 including grants of $ 408,964) (Revenue $ 2,489,831)

Research. Since its founding in 1885, the College has maintained its character as a small residential community which fosters close working relationships between faculty and students. The Faculty of Teacher/Scholars emphasizes learning through conversation and collaboration, primary reading, original research and experimentation. The College's faculty research support programs reflect a strong institutional commitment to faculty scholarship and to the relationship between teaching and research.

4c

(Code) (Expenses $ 2,341,775 including grants of $ 26,390) (Revenue $ 1,929,452)

Public Service and Civic Engagement. Bryn Mawr College's Child Study Institute (CSI) and Phebe Anna Thorne School have been serving children, adolescents, and adults in the greater Philadelphia area for more than sixty years. CSI provides psychological testing, therapy/counseling, educational support, and school consultation to children and families in a comfortable and welcoming setting. The Thorne School offers developmentally oriented, child-centered pre-school and kindergarten programs. Civic Engagement collaborates with community-based organizations to prepare students to be socially responsible leaders and citizens through purposeful action, reflection, and learning. A wide variety of programs include providing direct service such as tutoring, tax preparation, mentoring, community gardening, and leadership training, and reflecting on that service inside and outside of a classroom setting. This dynamic combination of the practical and the academic helps shape students' professional goals, gives them real work experience, and provides the Philadelphia metropolitan area with much-needed services.

a A person who directly or indirectly controls, either alone or together with persons described in (b) and (c) below, the governing body of a supported organization?	11a
b A family member of a person described in (a) above?	11b
c A 35% controlled entity of a person described in (a) or (b) above? If "Yes" to a, b, or c, provide detail in Part VI.	11c

Part IV

Section B. Type I Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year.
2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Were a majority of the organization's directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization's supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (1) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (2) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (3) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization(s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
3 By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.

Section E. Type III Functionally-Integrated Supporting Organizations

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part III, Line 4	The College's art and artifact collections number more than 50,000 objects. These collections encompass five areas: fine art and music, archaeology, anthropology, decorative arts, and geology. The collections enhance the education mission of Bryn Mawr College and serve as a resource for diverse academic departments, including History of Art, Classics, Anthropology, Fine Arts, Growth and Structure of Cities, Geology, History, and Languages. Each year hundreds of objects from the collections are utilized for research by faculty, students, and outside scholars. In addition, objects are regularly loaned to regional, national, and international museum exhibitions.
Schedule D, Part V, Line 4	The College's endowment funds consist of both donor restricted and board designated funds. The endowment supports student grants, instructional and research programs, lectures, library purchases, and general operations.
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	The College has been granted tax-exempt status as a non-profit organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, and accordingly, files federal tax Form 990 (Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax) annually. The College also files federal tax Form 990-T (Exempt Organizations Business Income Tax Return). The College monitors and evaluates its activities for unrelated business income.
Schedule D, Part XI, Line 2d	Endowment and annuity expenses netted with revenue in the audited financial statements.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a	First-class travel may be paid by the College for international flights and rail transportation. Housing: As a condition of employment, the President is required to reside in College-owned housing. The house must be and is used for College business and College-sponsored functions. A housing expense allowance is provided. The estimated value of housing costs for the President is excluded from taxable income but disclosed in Schedule J Column D. Nontaxable benefits $61,637. The College made a payment with tax gross-up to President Cassidy which appears as other reportable income in Column B (iii) on Schedule J of $25,896.
Schedule J, Part I, Line 3	The compensation of officers and key employees is determined by an annual review of current independent salary surveys. The Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees approves the compensation of the President and gives final approval to compensation for all other officers and key employees based on the President's recommendations. The President of the College has an employment contract.
Schedule J, Part I, Line 4	In calendar 2014, former President Jane McAuliffe received severance payments totaling $265,470 as reported in Schedule J Part II Column E.
Schedule J, Part I, Line 7	Taxable income in lieu of College pension contribution totaling $25,896 as reported on Schedule J Part II Column B(iii) Line 5. Bonuses are based on a number of variables including but not limited to individual goal achievements as well as operational achievements of the College. At times, bonuses are a one-time payment when an employee has taken on additional temporary duties. The final decision of the bonus amount is determined as part of the overall compensation review and is approved by the Board of Trustees for the President of the College and for others by the College President. These are reported on Schedule J Part II Column B(ii).
Schedule J, Part II	Certain members of the faculty opted to participate in a non-qualified dependent tuition benefit program. Such benefits are taxable and are reported on Schedule J Column B(iii). Other reportable compensation totaling $28,597.

Explanation

Form 990, Part
VI, Section B,
Line 11b

Pt VI, Section B, line 11b (review of 990) Form 990 was prepared internally and forwarded to an independent accounting firm for review. Form 990-T was prepared by the same independent accounting firm. A copy of the final draft of Forms 990 and 990-T are provided to the Audit Committee and the Board of Trustees before the forms are filed. The Audit Committee reviews the forms and related schedules and each committee member affirms either that the forms are acceptable or that changes are needed. All committee members are informed of the substantive changes made during this process and before the date of filing. A final copy of the Form 990 is provided to the full Board of Trustees before it is filed.
