Form 990-EZ, Part III, Line 28 - Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

CCHA's program centers around the hockey season which runs from August to April of each year. Summer activities are also organized for the youth. Activities take place at the Wilmington Ice House in Wilmington, North Carolina. Teams in the organization also play at other hockey rinks within the region. Participants receive instruction in the sport of ice hockey; travel on teams to various locations in NC and other states to compete against other teams; participate in hockey camps and leagues sponsored by USA Hockey.

Player Assistance

12 youth players were each given an average $1,042 each as a fee waiver to offset a portion of their player fees for the hockey season. The Organization's Board of Directors' assesses each player's parents' financial situation separately and awards scholarships to the extent that funding is available. Any board member with a personal relationship to the player is excused from any discussion involving that player.
