Part III, Line 4	The Foundation holds various art collections. The largest consists of Oriental and European art. These are held by the Foundation to allow opportunities for Taylor University students to learn about and appreciate these works of art.
Part V, Line 4	All of the William Taylor Foundation endowed funds are to support the Foundation's general operations.
Part X, Line 2	The Organization has received a determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service indicating it is a tax-exempt organization as provided in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and is exempt from federal and state income taxes on income related to its exempt purpose. The accounting guidance for uncertainty in income taxes prescribes the recognition threshold a tax position is required to meet before being recognized in the financial statements. The guidance also addresses de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties on income taxes, and accounting in interim periods. Management believes there are no material uncertainties in income taxes. The Organization files the appropriate tax forms in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and the state of Indiana. With few exceptions, the Organization is no longer subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service or state of Indiana for years before 2012.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The Foundation has adopted a conflict of interest policy that requires directors, officers and key employees to submit an annual conflict of interest disclosure. The annual disclosure requires directors, officers and key employees to disclose, in writing, any known financial interest that the individual (together with family members) has in any business entity that transacts business with the Organization. In addition, directors, officers and key employees are required to immediately disclose any possible conflict of interest that arises mid-year in relation to a proposed transaction. The Conflict of Interest Policy requires that any individual with a conflict be recused from the decision making process, that independent directors or committee members determine that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Organization, and the transaction must be approved by a vote of the independent directors or committee members without the participation of any interested individual. The annual conflict disclosure statements are submitted to, and reviewed by, the audit committee, composed of independent outside directors. In addition, the executive staff is responsible for monitoring any possible conflict transactions that arise and managing them to ensure that all transactions represent arms' length, fair market value terms for or the benefit of the Organization.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	Executive Compensation. The Foundation leases all employees from Taylor University. The University has adopted an Executive Compensation and Intermediate Sanctions Policy that ensures that all compensation arrangements with related parties are evaluated and entered at arms' length and that any compensation that is paid to a related party is reasonable and reflects fair market value. The Policy encourages the application of the rebuttable presumption standard of Code Section 4958 and the related Treasury Regulations by (a) excluding any interested party from the decision making process, (b) requiring disinterested board or committee members to obtain and rely upon comparability data when setting the proposed compensation terms, (c) requiring approval of the transaction in advance by disinterested trustees or committee members, and (d) requiring contemporaneous documentation (i.e., minutes) reflecting the decision and the process by which it was made. In the case of the President's compensation, the Executive Committee (composed entirely of independent members of the University board of trustees), is responsible for ensuring that the process outlined above is applied.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	The organization makes its governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements available to the public upon request, either as printed or an electronic copy, for the same period of disclosure as set forth by IRC section 6104(d).
Form 990, Part XI, line 9	Forgiveness of Debt -1,500. Actuarial Changes -211,534.
Form 990 Part I, Lines 5 and 15	Number of Employees and Salaries, Compensation, and Other Benefits - William Taylor Foundation does not itself have any employees, so line 5 is reported as '0'. However, during the fiscal year ended 5/31/15, the Foundation did reimburse Taylor University for services provided by one University employee who serves as an officer of the Foundation.
