Name of the organization

LANGDON FRATERNAL ORDER OF EAGLES AERIE 3454

Employer identification number

45-0315912

Part III 2. Our organization focuses on donating to families with a member who has a very serious or terminal illness. More funds were given to charter members of our club and Aerie members. Individuals with no connection to our organization were also served in some manner.

We also aided those with losses to fire or other natural disaster. (page 2)

Part III 4d. Other program services include aid to libraries, 4H, school projects outside the curriculum, Christmas funds for the needy, etc. It is very difficult to categorize all the entities we donate to. Our Attorney General's office spells out who we can donate to and what organizations we can't donate to. We must follow these guidelines for charitable donations or the donation must come from our operating budget. (page 2)

Part VI Section B 11b We follow the constitution of our Grand Aerie. At our regular meetings, we publicly discuss any items that we feel could, eventually, have the concern of our members. (page 6)

Part IV Section B 12c This situation is carefully monitored as we have officers who are employed by various construction entities which may bid on a particular project of our club. We carefully scrutinize all bid letting and actions. (page 6)

Part IV Section C 19 Our organizations governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements are all open records. They are frequently displayed and/or discussed at our general membership meetings. The documents may be viewed at any time through the contacting of an officer. (page 6)

Part VII A Our organization gives a stipend to the executive of the club with no Social Security, Medicare, etc. taken out. Our officers' tenure is for one year. At the end of the year, they receive the stipend. The person listed as manager is compensated for his managerial duties - $39752. The secretary is compensated $5291 for his duties throughout the term. (page 7)
