| Part I-A, Line 1   | The Georgia Society of CPAs provides certain expense reimbursements to candidates that further the voice of the CPA profession.                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Part III-B, Line 3 | 91% of membership dues may be deducted as a business expense but not as a charitable contribution. 9% of membership dues is estimated for lobbying and therefore not deductible in accordance with IRC Sec. 6033. In addition, members are informed that all contributions to the Georgia Society of CPA's - PAC are not tax deductible. |

| Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 7b  | The decisions of the governing body are subject to approval by the members of the Georgia Society of Certified Public Accountants                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11  | The Form 990 is prepared by an outside CPA firm, Metcalf Davis. The Chairman of the Board, the Treasurer, and senior management of the Organization perform a detailed review of the Form 990 and attachments. Form 990 is then made available electronically to the remainder of the Board of Directors for their review prior to filing. |
| Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c | The Officers and Directors of the Organization annually receive a conflict of interest policy to review and sign. The copies are maintained and internally reviewed by the Georgia Society of Certified Public Accountants.                                                                                                                |
| Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15  | A compensation committee, comprised of members of the Board of Directors, annually determines the CEO's salary. The CEO determines the salary of all other paid employees with the approval of the compensation committee.                                                                                                                 |
| Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19  | The Organization maintains its Form 990, governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and audited financial statements in permanent files which are readily available to the public upon request.                                                                                                                                     |
